THE COLLEGE

Wellesley College is a liberal arts college for women situated in the township of Wellesley, Massachusetts, twelve miles west of Boston. Much of the five hundred acre campus was once the country estate of Henry Fowle Durant, a wealthy Boston lawyer. In the 1860s Mr. Durant and his wife, moved by religious convictions, decided to establish a residential Christian college that would "offer to young women opportunities for education equivalent to those usually provided in colleges for young men." It was Mr. Durant's hope that in this college young women could prepare themselves "for great conflicts, for vast reforms in social life, for noblest usefulness." The decision was followed by years of preparation until the College received a charter on March 17, 1870 and in September 1875 was opened to three hundred and fourteen students.

The resources and size of the College grew steadily. The single building with which Wellesley started, College Hall, housed all students and faculty and contained the library, chapel, classrooms, and laboratories. As the number of students increased, other buildings were added, but College Hall remained the center of community life until it was destroyed by a great fire in 1914. Gradually Wellesley was rebuilt; in place of one enormous structure housing many activities, buildings for special uses were erected on the various hills on the campus.

Today more than forty buildings provide facilities for the intellectual and community life of the College. Thirteen of them are residence halls for undergraduate students. The halls are large, with the result that the student, who finds that academic instruction is usually given in small groups, forms a wide acquaintance in the course of her residence with people who come from many different regions.

Wellesley College believes that the study of the liberal arts develops perspective and intellectual strength for the endeavors of a lifetime. It seeks to give to the student broad knowledge of her cultural heritage and to develop her competence in and respect for disciplined, honest thinking. These purposes of the College have re-maintained constant since its founding, while the particulars of its programs are frequently revised under the influences of the changing contemporary world.

The faculty is composed of approximately 160 men and women, trained in many different universities here and abroad and chosen to maintain Wellesley's tradition of good teaching and sound scholarship. The student body includes more than 1,700 young women who bring to the community the cultural, economic, and regional diversity of the United States, and also representation of many foreign countries. Because of the size and composition of the College the student meets a wide range of viewpoints and fields of special interest; yet she finds that the policies of today permit education to be an individual process as it was when the College began.

Most classes are small enough to make possible the exchange of ideas between student and teacher and to enable the faculty to know and plan for the needs of each individual. Variations from this pattern occur in large extradepartmental courses, some two of which the student is expected to elect; in occasional large classes in some departments; and in the requirement that each student, ordinarily as a junior, devote a portion of her time to studying independently a topic which she selects. Upperclass students may undertake further individual work within the regular program or in an honors program.

The entering student is invited to explore various fields in the liberal arts and sciences, particularly those of her probable special interests. When she decides on her area of concentration, she can then select courses in other fields to provide complementing or contrasting experiences. These, together with her major, will enable her to achieve a broadly liberal education.

Each student is expected to take the initiative in planning her program and in meeting her academic and residential obligations. At various times before reaching decisions she may need counsel or may wish to talk freely with an older person about her academic or personal life. At such times she can turn to her class dean who keeps in touch with her academic progress and her personal welfare, to her instructors, including the ordained ministers in the department of Biblical History, to the resident head of her house, or to the college physicians and psychiatrists. After she selects a major, she will also find helpful the chairman or her adviser in the major department. If she has financial difficulties, she may turn to the Financial Aid Officer or the Students' Aid Society. If she wishes paid work during the academic year or in vacations, or if as a graduating senior or an alumna she wishes employment, the Placement Office is prepared to help her. Because maturing independence is respected, advice is not thrust upon the student, but it is readily available from experts in various areas and from intelligent adults interested in each individual.

The learning situation created by student and teacher is strengthened by the quality of the physical facilities available for their use. At Wellesley the student of the biological or physical sciences finds laboratories unusually well equipped for undergraduate work and having in addition equipment for the work of graduate students and professors, whose research activities she may be invited to share. The student of art finds in the permanent collections on the campus a representative selection of monuments and extensive collections of books, slides, and photographs, as well as rotating loan exhibits. The student of music finds listening rooms where she has access to large libraries of records and practice rooms equipped with grand pianos. The student of language has a language laboratory available for her use, and for interested students of modern languages special residential corridors may be maintained. The student of statistics has an interdepartmental laboratory open to her. Any student interested in the young child may observe and work with boys and girls in the college laboratory school for three, four, and five year olds.

Every student benefits from the library collections which are unusual in size and quality for an undergraduate college. The working library contains approximately 400,000 volumes carefully selected to meet the needs of the faculty as well as the students. Subscriptions to about 1,600 American and foreign periodicals and the deposit of certain government publications important to the student of the social sciences add to the usefulness of the library. Special collections, containing rare items as well as important collateral works, offer opportunities for research to the undergraduate student and the advanced scholar. The College is fortunate in having distinguished collections in English poetry, Italian literature, Medieval European literature, and on the Far East. Except for the rare volumes in these and other special collections, books are kept on open shelves to which the student has immediate access.

A broad program of extracurricular activities, made possible by the size and residential character of the College, supplements the liberal arts curriculum. From them the student may choose those which will contribute most to her enjoyment and growth. She may attend lectures by visiting scholars and public figures, readings by poets, music concerts, and art, book, and scientific exhibits. Through participation in various organizations she may test and develop interests in such areas as music, theatre, dance, sports, journalism, social service, political and civic activity. Whatever her special interest, she finds opportunity to associate informally, to work cooperatively with others, and to maintain through sound habits of physical exercise the health which effective study requires.

Some student groups, such as choir and theatre, have professional direction; most of them are organized and conducted entirely by students. Two of them, the Chapel Organization and the College Government Association, are sponsored jointly by students and faculty. The Chapel Organization conducts student-sponsored religious activities, coordinates denominational and interfaith programs, and supports the chapel services sponsored by the College. Since its founding Wellesley has been a Christian institution without denominational affiliation; it offers daily services led by members of the community and Sunday services led by well-known ministers, at all of which attendance is voluntary. The College Government Association, to which all students belong, has executive, legislative, and judicial branches with elected student and faculty representatives, in each of which student representatives form the majority. This Association supports the methods and spirit of responsible democracy; it charters all extracurricular organizations, establishes committees such as the Student Education Committee, and acts on various social and residential regulations. Outside of the College, enriching cultural and social opportunities exist in the Greater Boston area which can be reached during the day in about one hour by the College's bus service or by public transportation.

The present college is in marked contrast to the small faculty and student body, the one building, the collection of eight thousand books, and the restricted social life with which Wellesley started. Yet the serene beauty of the campus remains unchanged, and the student now as always finds opportunity and is encouraged to develop her standards of ethics and taste, of personal and civic responsibility, and her intellectual and creative gifts.

THE CURRICULUM

The curriculum provides a framework within which each student is invited to construct a program of studies, suited to her individual interests, which will enable her to achieve a sound liberal education. The ordered progression of studies and varieties in methods of learning are designed to help her build on her earlier studies in school without repetition and to develop mature intellectual independence during her four years in college.

By the time she receives the Bachelor of Arts degree she is expected to have demonstrated that she can use English, both in speaking and writing, in a clear, orderly, precise way, and that she can use at least one foreign language; that she has some acquaintance with the major strands of her intellectual and moral heritage, stemming from the Biblical and the Greek tradition and expressed in the history and in the great works of literature, art, music, and philosophy of the West; that she has some acquaintance with the objective study of human behavior and social institutions, and some understanding of the relationships among men in economic and political contexts; and that she has some understanding of the natural world in which she lives, of ways in which knowledge of the physical and biological environment is gained, and of the conceptual structures through which it is expressed. She will also have shown herself capable of learning not only through the small and informal classes which make up most of the curriculum but through two of the large extradepartmental lecture courses, and will have tested her interest in and readiness for independent learning in her area of concentration. Finally, she will have demonstrated that she has achieved some learning in depth by having taken a structured, sequential program in a discipline or related set of disciplines, and by passing at the end of her senior year an examination in her major.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS

Each candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts is required to complete 40 units of academic work. The normal period of time in which to earn the degree is four years and a normal program of study consists of ten units each year, four in Term I, four in Term II, and two in Term III.

REQUIRED STUDIES

Unless exempted, each student elects:

English 100 (freshman year) 1 unit

Biblical History 104 (sophomore year) 2 units

Two units from courses in literature, either in English literature* or in literature courses in a foreign language.*

Two units from courses in art, music, and a literature other than the one chosen to meet the previous requirement.

Two units from courses in history or philosophy*, either one in each or two in the same department.

Three units from courses in economics, political science*, psychology, and sociology and anthropology*. Two units are to be in the same department, the third in a different department.

Four units from courses in astronomy, biology, chemistry, geology, mathematics, physics, and the history of science. Two units are to be in one discipline, and two in one or in two other disciplines.

Two units, and not more than two, from special lecture courses (see Extradepartmental Courses and Programs), one of which is primarily for freshmen, and others primarily for upperclassmen.

In addition each student elects Physical Education 121 (freshman year) and Physical Education 122 (sophomore year). No academic credit is given.

Each student must show before the beginning of her senior year that she has some proficiency in the use of at least one foreign language, ancient or modern. This requirement may be met by passing one of the language tests of the College Entrance Examination Board, either the Achievement Test at a score of at least 610, or the Advanced Placement Examination at a score of at least 3, or by the completion at Wellesley of two units of language study at the second-year college level or higher. It may not be met by summer school courses.

Except for English 100 and Biblical History 104, required studies may be taken at any time in the four years. Students are urged to explore various areas in the first two years with a view to finding the one in which they wish to major. In their exploration they will elect courses which serve to meet some of the requirements. The remaining requirements may be met in the last two years with courses which will either complement the work chosen for the area of concentration or provide a useful contrast to it.

* The "Directions for Election" of the department should be consulted, since some courses do not count in fulfilling the requirement.

AREA OF CONCENTRATION

During the freshman year all students will give thought to the choice of their major subjects and some may reach a final decision. In the second term of the sophomore year each student elects a major subject and related courses and prepares for the Recorder a statement of the courses to be included in the area of concentration. If she wishes to make revisions later, her final plan for the area of concentration, after being approved by the chairman of the major department, should be presented to the Recorder not later than Term II of the junior year.

Some students wish to center their study upon an area, a period, or a subject which cuts across the lines of departmental organization. This can be done by meeting the minimum requirements for a major in one department, by careful selection of free electives, of courses related to the major, and of courses chosen to meet the general degree requirements. A student who is interested in a program of this kind should consult her class dean and the chairmen of the appropriate departments as soon as possible in her college course. Among the numerous possibilities for such study are programs centering on Asia, Russia, Latin America, the United States; the Middle Ages, the Renaissance; International Relations, Molecular Biology, Theatre Studies.

A minimum of 15 units is to be elected in the area of concentration. Of these one unit of independent study (290) is normally elected in Term III of the junior year, and one unit, designated 340, which is used for concentrated preparation for the Senior Major Examination, is elected in Term III of the senior year. At least 8 other units are to be elected in the major department, and at least 3 in related courses in other departments.

Courses are classified in grades I, II, and III, grade I indicating elementary courses and grade III the most advanced courses. Of the 15 units in the area of concentration at least 6 must be above grade I and at least 4 in addition to 340 must be grade III. At least 2 units of grade III in addition to 340 must be taken in the senior year.

English 100 may not be counted in the English major or for related work in any department. Course 100 in modern foreign languages need not be counted as part of the minimum required for the major and may not be counted as related work unless two additional units in the language are taken.

At the end of the senior year each candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree must pass an examination in the major subject, unless as a candidate for honors she is asked to pass special examinations in place of the Senior Major Examination.

FURTHER REQUIREMENTS

Standard of Written and Spoken English. Students are expected to use good English in their written work in all departments. A student in any class who fails to maintain acceptable standards may be referred to the Department of English for remedial work. Students are also expected to maintain good standards of spoken English. For any student who has a genuine disability, remedial work in speech can be arranged.

Within the 40 units required for the degree the student is permitted to elect:

1. A maximum of 14 units in any one department (in addition to 290 and 340).
2. A maximum of two beginning courses in modern foreign languages.
3. A maximum of 4 units in studio art if balanced by the required amount of work in the history of art. (See department statement.)
4. A maximum of 6 units in education.
5. A maximum of 6 units in Theatre Studies.

The program of the senior year may not include more units of grade I than of grade III work (excluding 340).

To be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, a student must complete 40 units of academic work at a C average or better and must receive passing grades in 290 and in the Senior Major Examination or in the special examinations for honors in the major subject. She must have resided in the College for at least two years unless she has had permission to commute from her parents' home, and she must have completed satisfactorily two years of study at Wellesley College, one of which must be the senior year unless as a married senior she has special permission to spend the senior year at one of five specified colleges.

EXEMPTION FROM REQUIRED STUDIES; ADVANCED PLACEMENT

A student may be exempted from any of the studies required for the degree, provided she can demonstrate to the department concerned, or in the case of extradepartmental courses to those in charge of the courses, that she has reasonable competence in the materials of the course.

Students who have taken the Advanced Placement Tests of the College Entrance Examination Board and achieved a score of 4 (Honors) or 5 (High Honors) are eligible for exemption. Other students who believe themselves qualified may apply through the class dean for an exemption examination. Permission to take the examination rests with the class dean and the chairman of the department concerned. (See Special Examinations below.) In addition to the evidence offered by the examination some departments may require the student to present a paper or an acceptable laboratory notebook.

Exemption, when granted, will permit the election of advanced courses.

Students are urged to enter the most advanced courses for which they are prepared by previous study.

CREDIT OUTSIDE THE REGULAR COURSE PROGRAM

Students who enter under the Advanced Placement Program of the College Entrance Examination Board and who have received scores of 4 or 5 may apply for college credit in all subjects. An eligible student who requests two units of credit will be awarded them provided she does not register in college for courses which cover substantially the same material as that in which she receives credit. Further credits for each other course will be awarded after she has completed a course in the subject at Wellesley College at an appropriate level and has earned a grade of C or better. There is no limit to the number of units which the student may earn through the Advanced Placement Program, though not more than two will be credited in any one subject.

It is also possible for students to earn one or two units of credit towards the degree by independent study in the summer, tested and evaluated by a Wellesley department. Those wishing to undertake such independent study for credit should consult the appropriate department and the class dean.

COURSE AND SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS

An examination period occurs at the end of each term. Examinations for the removal of conditions and deficiencies may be taken during the examination periods at the end of Terms I and II and at other specified times.

Special examinations are offered in September to qualified students to earn credit for work done independently, for admission to advanced courses without the stated prerequisites, and for exemption from required studies.

Students who wish credit towards the degree for work done independently in the summer or for more than two units of summer school work should consult the appropriate department and the class dean, and should apply to the Recorder at least a month in advance for a special examination given at the beginning of the college year. The fee for a special examination for credit is stated on p. 146.

RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY

In addition to the unit of independent work taken by every student in her area of concentration, each department of the College which offers a major course of study provides the opportunity for certain students to undertake a program of individual study directed by a member of the faculty. Under this program an eligible student may undertake a research project or a program of reading in a particular field. The results of her work normally will be presented in a thesis or in a series of short essays. The conditions for admission to this work in each department are described under the course designated 350. Further opportunities for research and individual study are described under the Honors program.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTIONS AND HONORS

THE BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE WITH DISTINCTION IN THE MAJOR SUBJECT

Students who have shown marked excellence and an unusual degree of independence in their work in the major and in the Senior Major Examination may receive the Bachelor of Arts degree with Distinction in the Major Subject. To be recommended the student must also maintain a good general average in all her academic work.

THE BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE WITH HONORS IN THE MAJOR SUBJECT

The honors program is open to students with a strong academic record who wish to undertake two or four units of independent work in their senior year. Each candidate for honors completes an individually chosen research project, supervised by a member of the faculty and entered on her record as 370, Honors Research (2 units). In most departments she may also undertake one or two additional units of independent study, designated as 365, in areas or subjects related to her central project. The successful completion of the independent work and of the honors examinations leads to the award of Honors or High Honors in the Major Subject.

OTHER ACADEMIC DISTINCTIONS

Excellence in academic work is recognized by honorary titles which are open to all students and are awarded without reference to financial need.

The College names as Pendleton Scholars certain entering freshmen who submit outstanding credentials for admission. It confers Freshman Honors on the students who maintain high academic standing during the freshman year and names in convocation the juniors and seniors whose records after the freshman year are at the level of Wellesley College Scholars and Durant Scholars. Final honors, conferred at Commencement, are based on academic records after the freshman year and include the title Wellesley College Scholar for high academic standing and Durant Scholar for the highest academic standing.

Juniors and seniors are elected to membership in the Eta of Massachusetts Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa on the basis of their total academic achievement in college, and seniors who are majoring in the sciences may be elected to associate membership in the Wellesley Chapter of Sigma Xi, national honorary scientific society.

On recommendation of the faculty the Trustees award to four seniors who intend to pursue graduate studies the title of Trustee Scholar. The awards are made on a competitive basis in two categories: two for graduate study without restriction as to subject; two for graduate study undertaken as preparation for college teaching. The title is honorary; in cases of financial need stipends are awarded to the Scholars or, if not required by them, to alternates who need financial assistance. Applications and supporting credentials are due in the President's Office by January 15.

Certain prizes have been established at the College for the recognition of merit in a particular field. They carry a small stipend or gift and usually bear the name of the donor or the person honored.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS

A candidate for the degree of Master of Arts is required to complete 8 units of graduate work, which ordinarily includes a thesis embodying the results of original research. The program is arranged by the student's major department and is subject to the approval of the Committee on Graduate Instruction. A reading knowledge of French or German, to be tested by examination at entrance, is required. Individual departments may require a second language. At least one year in residence is required of all candidates.

Some departments, but not all, accept candidates for the Master of Arts degree. The College does not maintain a program of courses for graduate students separate from those offered for undergraduates. Properly qualified graduate students are admitted to grade III courses, to seminars, and to course 350, Research or Individual Study.

Information regarding admission, living arrangements, graduate assistantships and scholarships will be found in the bulletin, Graduate Study at Wellesley College, which will be sent upon application to the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS AND PREPARATION FOR CAREERS

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

USE OF THE SUMMER VACATION

Students are encouraged to make constructive use of the long summer vacation, supplementing through it the work and activities of the academic year. Several possibilities are recognized, for example, field or laboratory work at the College or elsewhere, travel, vocational experience, and serious and ordered reading. Regardless of their specific activities, all students are expected to undertake some serious reading each summer. To assist them, each of the departments makes available a reading list designed to enrich the student's knowledge of her major subject.

The College joins with Vassar College in sponsoring a Summer Internship in Government that enables students from various departments to learn at first hand of the operations of the Federal Government. Students who are accepted for the program spend six weeks in Washington during the summer preceding their senior year. A director arranges assignments in various government bureaus, Congressional offices, and headquarters of the Democratic and Republican National Committees, and meets regularly with the interns during the six weeks.

The College participates in the Internship Program in Economics, sponsored by the National Association of Business Economists. Economics majors who meet the high standards set for candidates in this program may be placed in salaried positions in private or public agencies in all parts of the country during the summer following the junior year, to carry out applied economic research under the direction of senior economists.

THE JUNIOR YEAR ABROAD

Qualified students may apply for admission to the various groups spending the junior year in Europe. Wellesley students may study in Paris under the plan sponsored by Sweet Briar College, or in Munich under the auspices of Wayne University, or in Florence, Geneva, Madrid, or Paris with groups organized by Smith College. A student who wishes to join one of these groups must have a good academic record and competence in the language of the country in which she plans to study; in general two years of study of the language at the college level are necessary to provide adequate preparation. In advance of making application, a student must have the approval of the chairman of her major department and of her class dean.

PREPARATION FOR CAREERS

For information about graduate fellowships see pp. 136-137.

COLLEGE TEACHING AND RESEARCH

A student who wishes to enter college teaching and research will find that the undergraduate work of the College provides preparation for graduate study leading to advanced degrees in the arts and sciences. She should consult as early as possible the chairman of her major department, or of the department in which she hopes to pursue graduate study, to learn which courses in her field of special interest and which foreign languages will be most useful to her. It should be noted that for graduate study in many fields a reading knowledge of two specified languages is required. The student will find her class dean, her faculty adviser, the chairmen of departments, and the Placement Office helpful in locating information about graduate schools.

PREPARATION FOR SECONDARY SCHOOL TEACHING

Some teaching positions in public as well as in private schools are open to college graduates without further study. Students who complete the course in supervised teaching and three other units of study in education and two in psychology are able to fulfill the minimum requirements for a teaching license in many states.

Wellesley is one of a group of colleges affiliated with the Harvard Graduate School of Education in a program which affords graduates of the cooperating colleges special opportunities for supervised teaching in the summer, for paid teaching internships during the regular school year, and for graduate study at Harvard.

A student who intends to teach should consult the chairman of the Department of Education as soon as possible about requirements for certification and ways of preparing to meet them.

MEDICAL SCHOOL

In general, the minimum requirements for admission to recognized medical schools can be met by four units in chemistry, two units in physics, and two units in biology. Because there is some variation in the minimum requirements, a student should consult the most recent catalogues of the particular medical schools in which she is interested.

Many students planning to study medicine elect two pre-medical sciences in the freshman year and major in one of them. Many medical schools stress the importance of a liberal education as a preparation for medical studies and accept applicants regardless of their major provided they have fulfilled the minimum requirements for admission. A student, therefore, is advised to major in the field of her greatest interest. Students wishing to prepare for medical school should consult Professor Louise P. Wilson, Department of Biological Sciences.

THE CIVIL SERVICE

A student wishing to qualify for examinations offered by the United States Civil Service Commission or various state and local civil service agencies should consult her major department and the Placement Office about current requirements. For many positions some work in statistics and public administration is desirable; graduate study is a qualification for many of the more important posts.

OTHER PROFESSIONS

In her undergraduate work a student may meet the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts and at the same time prepare to enter professional schools, for example, architecture, law, medicine, social service administration, teaching. A sound education in the liberal arts is considered the best preparation for admission to most professional schools, but a student who is interested in any one of the professions should consult her class dean to discuss the particular emphasis which she should make in her undergraduate program. She should also consult as soon as possible the catalogue of the graduate school which she has chosen.

DEPARTMENTAL COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

1967-1968

The following courses of instruction are offered by the several departments. The College reserves the right to withdraw any course not chosen by at least six students.

All courses are classified in grades I, II, III; grade I indicates elementary courses and grade III the most advanced courses. Grade I courses are numbered 100, etc.; grade II courses 200, etc.; grade III courses 300, etc.

The first term is indicated by (1) following the course number, the second term by (2), the third term by (3). The number of units of credit appears in parentheses following the course title. A term course which carries one unit of credit requires approximately eleven hours of work each week spent partly in class and partly in preparation. The amount of time scheduled for classes varies with the subject from two periods each week in many courses in the humanities and social sciences to three, four, or five scheduled periods in certain courses in foreign languages, in art and music, and in the sciences. Classes are scheduled from Monday morning through late Friday afternoon; examinations may be scheduled from Monday morning through late Saturday afternoon.

ART

PROFESSORS McANDREW, SHELL (Chairman), VERMEULE; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR FRISCH; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS WALLACE, ANDERSON, FERGUSON; INSTRUCTORS: MISS KEYDEL, MRS. CLAPP, MR. MOFFETT, MISS PAUL; LECTURER: MR. FLANSBURGH; RESIDENT ARTISTS: MR. RAYEN, MR. ABELES, MR. LARABEE

HISTORY OF ART

Many of the courses in art include some laboratory work in the one or more mediums with which the course is concerned. The department believes that laboratory training has great value in developing observation and understanding of artistic problems, and for this reason requires it of majoring students. It should be stated, however, that no particular aptitude is required and that the work is adjusted to the student's ability.

100 (1-2). INTRODUCTORY COURSE (2 units)

The major styles in Western architecture, sculpture, and painting from ancient Greece to c. 1800. A foundation for further study of the history of art. Simple laboratory work (requiring no previous training or artistic skill) planned to give the student a greater understanding of artistic problems. Open only to freshmen and sophomores. The Staff

201 (2). GREEK SCULPTURE AND PAINTING (1 unit)

The origins and development of Greek art. Study of focal monuments and artists in each successive period. Laboratory work consisting largely of modeling and carving. Open to freshmen and sophomores who have taken or are taking 100, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite.

Mrs. Vermeule, Mr. Larrabee

202 (1). MEDIEVAL SCULPTURE AND PAINTING (1 unit)

A study of Western European sculpture, manuscript painting, ivories, and metal work from the late Roman through the High Gothic period. Laboratory work consisting largely of modeling, carving, and illumination.

Mr. Fergusson, Mrs. Frisch

203 (2). MEDIEVAL ARCHITECTURE (1 unit)

The architecture of Western Europe from the fall of Rome to the beginning of the Renaissance, with particular concentration on the great Romanesque and Gothic monuments. Occasional laboratory work. Prerequisite, same as for 201.

Mr. Fergusson, Mr. Abeles

207 (3). CHINESE ART (1 unit)

Survey of the major artistic traditions of China in monuments of the Bronze Age, Buddhist sculpture, and painting from the Han to the Ch'ing Dynasty. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have taken one course in the history of art or History 225, 227, or 338

Mrs. Clapp

209 (3).^{*} ETRUSCAN AND ROMAN ART (1 unit)

Traditions and experiments in the architecture, sculpture, and painting of ancient Italy and the Roman Empire abroad, from the Etruscans to the early Byzantine period. Prerequisite, 201 or permission of the instructor.

Mrs. Vermeule

215 (1). EUROPEAN ART THROUGH THE RENAISSANCE (1 unit)

The major movements in architecture, sculpture, and especially painting from classical antiquity to c. 1550. Open to sophomores who have taken History 100 or its equivalent, or Italian 100 or its equivalent, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. Not open to students who have taken Art 100.

Mr. Fergusson

216 (2). EUROPEAN ART FROM THE RENAISSANCE TO THE PRESENT

(1 unit)

Western art from the Renaissance to the present with emphasis on painting, sculpture, and architecture. Open to sophomores who have taken 215, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. Not open to students who have taken 100.

Mr. Moffett

219 (1) (3). PAINTING AND SCULPTURE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

(1 unit)

A study of painting and sculpture of the 19th century in Europe and America with emphasis on France. Open to freshmen and sophomores who have taken 100, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite.

Mr. Moffett (1), Miss Paul (3)

220 (1). PAINTING AND SCULPTURE OF THE SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURIES IN SOUTHERN EUROPE

(1 unit)

A study of Italian and Spanish painting and sculpture with special emphasis on Caravaggio and Bernini, and on El Greco and Velasquez. Open to sophomores who have taken 100, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite.

Mr. Wallace

221 (2). PAINTING AND SCULPTURE OF THE SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURIES IN NORTHERN EUROPE

(1 unit)

Flemish, Dutch, French, and German painting and sculpture of the 17th century with emphasis on Rembrandt and Rubens. French and English painting and sculpture of the 18th century. Prerequisite, same as for 220.

Mr. Wallace

224 (1-2) (2-3). MODERN ART

(2 units)

The major developments in painting, sculpture, and architecture from early in this century to the present. Laboratory work in the first term. Prerequisite, 216 or 219.

Mr. McAndrew (1-2), Mrs. Frisch (1) (2), Mr. Moffett (2-3)

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY

(1 unit)

302 (1). ITALIAN PAINTING: THE FOURTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH CENTURIES

(1 unit)

A study of selected artists whose work significantly illustrates the character of the late medieval and the early Renaissance styles. Particular attention to Florentine masters. Laboratory work. Open to juniors and seniors who have taken or are taking a grade II course in the department, and by permission to qualified students.

Mr. Shell, Mr. Rayen

303 (2). ITALIAN PAINTING: THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY (1 unit)

Studies of the major masters of the High Renaissance, followed by the examination of some selected Mannerist painters, and of those developments within 16th century painting which lead in the direction of the Baroque. Considerable attention to Venetian master. Laboratory work. Prerequisite, same as for 302. Mr. Shell, Mr. Rayen

304 (1). LATE MEDIEVAL AND RENAISSANCE SCULPTURE (1 unit)

A study of major sculptors from the 14th century to the end of the 16th century with emphasis on Italy and the work of Giovanni Pisano, Donatello, Ghiberti, and Michelangelo. Prerequisite, same as for 302. Mrs. Anderson

306 (1) (3). THE GRAPHIC ARTS FROM THE RENAISSANCE TO THE PRESENT (1 unit)

Emphasis on the styles of Dürer, Rembrandt, Goya, Picasso. Special attention to the influence of technique upon style. Laboratory instruction in the processes of woodcut, engraving, etching, lithography. Visits to collections. Open by permission to juniors and seniors who have taken a grade II course in the department. Mr. Wallace (1), Mrs. Anderson (3), Mr. Abeles

308 (1).° RENAISSANCE AND BAROQUE ARCHITECTURE (1 unit)

The early and High Renaissance, Mannerist, and Baroque styles of the 15th through the 18th centuries, with particular emphasis on Italy. Prerequisite, same as for 304. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

309 (2). MODERN ARCHITECTURE (1 unit)

Theory, criticism, and practice of modern architecture. Lectures, laboratory work, and field trips. Prerequisite, 224. Mr. Flansburgh

311 (2). PAINTING OF NORTHERN EUROPE (1 unit)

The period from the late 14th century to the mid-16th century in France, Germany, and the Low Countries. Laboratory work. Prerequisite, same as for 302. Mr. McAndrew, Mrs. Frisch

330 (2).° SEMINAR. ITALIAN PAINTING (1 unit)

Intensive study of one or more of the fundamental problems in the history of Italian painting. Open by permission to juniors and seniors who have taken 302 or 303. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

331 (2).° SEMINAR. PRINCIPLES AND METHODS OF ART HISTORY (1 unit)

A critical consideration of selected writings by art historians of the past and present who have significantly contributed to the development, methods, and principles of art history. Open by permission to seniors who have taken or are taking 2 additional units of grade III. Reading knowledge of French and/or German highly desirable. Mr. Shell

° Offered in alternate years.

332 (2).° SEMINAR. MEDIEVAL ART (1 unit)

Intensive study of one or a series of related problems in medieval painting or sculpture. Open by permission to juniors and seniors who have taken 202 or 203. Mr. Fergusson

333 (1).° SEMINAR. BAROQUE ART (1 unit)

Problems of style, connoisseurship, and iconology in 17th century art, concentrating on major Italian or northern Baroque masters. Open by permission to juniors and seniors who have taken 220 or 221. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

334 (1).° SEMINAR. ANCIENT ART (1 unit)

Intensive study of one or more of the fundamental problems in the history of ancient art. Open to juniors and seniors who have taken 201 or by permission of the instructor. Mrs. Vermeule

335 (1).° SEMINAR. SELECTED PROBLEMS IN THE HISTORY OF ART (1 unit)

Topic for 1967-68: Intensive study of problems in the field of modern art. Prerequisite, permission of the instructor. Mr. Moffett

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of majors in the senior year.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open by permission to juniors and seniors who have taken or are taking a grade III course.

365 (1) (2). HONORS STUDY (1 unit)

Open to honors candidates in the department.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

STUDIO COURSES

As many as 4 units of studio work may be counted toward the degree provided an equal number of units in the history of art is counted. Studio work should ordinarily follow or be concurrent with work in the history of art; not more than 1 unit of studio work may be elected in advance of election of work in the history of art.

° Offered in alternate years.

104 (2).^o INTRODUCTORY SCULPTURE (1 unit)

Basic modeling with emphasis on intensive observation of natural forms to develop the ability to translate volume and space into sculptural terms. Some work in terra cotta, direct plaster, and casting. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and by permission to freshmen who have studied art before entering college. Four periods of class instruction and four periods of studio practice. Mr. Abeles

105 (1) (2). INTRODUCTORY DRAWING (1 unit)

Introductory drawing with emphasis on basic forms in spatial relationships. Stress on the essential control of line in a variety of mediums. Prerequisite, same as for 104. Four periods of class instruction and four periods of studio practice. Mr. Larrabee, Mr. Rayen, Mr. Abeles

106 (2). INTRODUCTORY COLOR AND PAINTING (1 unit)

Basic problems in the interaction of colors; study of basic forms in plastic relationships. Prerequisite, same as for 104. Five periods of class instruction and three of studio practice. Mr. Rayen

206 (1). WATERCOLOR AND OIL PAINTING (1 unit)

Landscape, still life, and painting from model. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have taken 100, 105, or 106. Five periods of class instruction and three of studio practice. Mrs. Frisch

208 (2).^o ADVANCED DRAWING (1 unit)

An approach to drawing based upon both direct visual observation and stylistic analysis of master drawings. Problems dealing with the progress from line to form to chiaroscuro. Study of anatomy and composition. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have taken 105, or by permission upon presentation of a portfolio. Five periods of class instruction and three of studio practice. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mr. Larrabee

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

A major in art must include 100 (unless an exemption examination is passed) and at least 6 further units in the history of art, chosen to make adequate distribution in the different arts and different periods.

A reading knowledge of French, German, or Italian, though not required, is strongly recommended.

By careful choice of related courses, a student majoring in art may plan a field of concentration emphasizing one century or period such as Ancient, Medieval, Renaissance, or Modern. Students interested in such a plan should consult the chairman of the department as early as possible.

The attention of students is called to the extradepartmental program in classical archaeology.

ASTRONOMY

PROFESSOR HILL (Chairman); LECTURER: MRS. LILLER

103 (1) (2). INTRODUCTION TO ASTRONOMY (1 unit)

Relationships of earth and sky; the solar system, stars, and galaxies. Open to students not eligible for 105 who have taken Physics 100 or 103. Two periods of lecture and discussion weekly with a third period every other week; laboratory in alternate weeks, and evening work at the Observatory, unscheduled, for observation and use of the telescopes.

Miss Hill (1), Mrs. Liller (2)

105 (1-2). PRINCIPLES OF ASTRONOMY (2 units)

The nature and organization of the astronomical universe; the sun and stars, solar system, stellar groups, nebulae, galaxies. Stress on observational evidence for astronomical concepts. Open to students who have an admission unit in physics or have taken any college course in physics, and who have four admission units in mathematics or have taken or are taking Mathematics [106]†, 109, 200, or 204. Two periods weekly with a third period every other week; laboratory; some evening work at the Observatory, unscheduled, for observation and for use of the telescopes.

Miss Hill

200 (3). MODERN PHYSICS (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Physics 200.

202 (1). OPTICS (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Physics 202.

203 (3). RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN ASTRONOMY (1 unit)

Contemporary problems in optical, radio, and space astronomy. Astronomical observations from outside the earth's atmosphere, the evolution of stars, the universe of galaxies. Prerequisite, [101]†, [102], 103, or 105.

Miss Hill

216 (2). APPLICATIONS OF MATHEMATICS IN THE PHYSICAL SCIENCES I. (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Extradepartmental 216.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

217 (3). APPLICATIONS OF MATHEMATICS IN THE PHYSICAL SCIENCES II. (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Extradepartmental 217.

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

302 (2). GALACTIC STRUCTURE (1 unit)

Distribution and kinematics of the stellar and nonstellar components of the Galaxy. Critical examination of observational data. Local structure, solar motion, velocity ellipsoids. Large scale structure, populations, rotation. Prerequisite, 103 or 105, and 217 or Mathematics 200 or 204 (1).

Miss Hill

304 (1).^{*} INTRODUCTION TO ASTROPHYSICS (1 unit)

The physical nature of the sun and stars derived from analysis of their spectra. Prerequisite, same as for 302.

Mrs. Liller

305 (3).^{*} SELECTED TOPICS (1 unit)

Intensive study of a specific field. Prerequisite, same as for 302.

(Not offered in 1967-68.) Miss Hill

306 (1). ADVANCED MECHANICS (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Physics 306.

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of majors in the senior year.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open to seniors by permission.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

The following courses form the basis of the major: Astronomy 103-203 or 105, 217, 290, 302, 340; Physics 200, 202, or 306. Other courses for the major and related work should be elected in the Departments of Physics, Mathematics, and Astronomy. Extradepartmental 218 may be taken as related work. Students considering graduate work in astronomy are urged to acquire a reading knowledge of French and Russian or German.

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

BIBLICAL HISTORY, LITERATURE, AND INTERPRETATION

PROFESSORS LACHEMAN, GALE^a, DENBEAUX (Chairman),
MOWRY; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS JOHNSON, PETERSEN; INSTRUCTORS: MR. VANDERPOOL, MR. GREEN, MR. LONG, MR. ROGERS,
MR. HILES

The requirement in Biblical history is met by course 104. Students with a knowledge of Greek may substitute 210 for the second term of 104.

104 (1-2). STUDIES IN THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS (2 units)

A study of historical, prophetic, legal, wisdom, and apocalyptic writings of the Old Testament, and selected New Testament writings with emphasis upon the Synoptic Gospels. Introduction to the method of literary and historical criticism. The relevance of the Biblical tradition to the individual and society. Required of sophomores except as indicated above.

The Staff

203 (1-2). ELEMENTARY HEBREW (2 units)

The elements of Biblical Hebrew grammar, syntax, and vocabulary. Readings of selections from the Old Testament. Open to juniors and seniors by permission. (Not given in 1967-68.)

Mr. Lacheman

204 (1) (3). THE BEGINNINGS OF CHRISTIANITY (1 unit)

A study of the emergence of the Christian movement with special emphasis upon those experiences and convictions which determined its distinctive character. Intensive analysis of the thought of the Apostle Paul. Some study of other New Testament documents, especially the Gospel of John, and of non-canonical materials pertaining to the Christian Church of the first and second centuries. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

Miss Mowry (1), Mr. Petersen (3)

206 (2). ISRAEL AFTER THE EXILE (1 unit)

An examination of major literary and theological trends. Studies in both canonical and non-canonical materials with an emphasis upon Ezekiel, Ezra-Nehemiah, Psalms, Proverbs, and selections from the Apocrypha, Pseudepigrapha, and the Dead Sea Scrolls. Prerequisite, 104 or 210. (Not given in 1967-68.)

208 (1) (2). CHRISTIAN ETHICS (1 unit)

A study of texts selected from the history of Western ethics. Focus on Christian sources in relation to their critics in classical and contemporary periods. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

Mr. Johnson

^a Absent on leave.

210 (2). THE FIRST THREE GOSPELS IN GREEK (1 unit)

The second term of 104 for those students who prefer to study the Gospels in Greek. Open to students who have taken the first term of 104 and who have taken or are taking a grade II Greek course. Students choosing this way of fulfilling the requirement in Biblical history may postpone the work until their junior year without special permission.

Mr. Petersen

213 (3).^{*} JUDAISM FROM PHILO TO SPINOZA (1 unit)

The history of Judaism in its relation to the Graeco-Roman world, Christendom, and Islam. Reading (in translation) of significant portions of Talmudic, Midrashic, poetic, and speculative literatures. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

Mr. Lacheman

216 (1). HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT THROUGH THE REFORMATION (1 unit)

The interaction of the Biblical world view with classical culture and the consequent emergence of specifically Christian thought. The Church Fathers, the theology of the Creeds, Augustine, medieval theology, and the Reformation. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

Mr. Denbeaux

217 (2). HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY (1 unit)

The romantic and existentialist response to philosophical idealism and to literary and historical criticism of the Bible. The contribution of such thinkers as Schleiermacher, Hegel, Kierkegaard, and Coleridge to intellectual history. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

Mr. Vanderpool

219 (2) (3). HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY (1 unit)

An examination of crucial developments in contemporary theology, emphasizing the relevance of such theologians as Barth, Buber, and Tillich to an understanding of God and man. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

Mr. Green

225.^{*} ISRAEL AND HER NEIGHBORS (1 unit)

A study of the common patterns of thought and religion in the ancient Near East—and their relation to Israel's religion—as reflected in archaeology and literature. Prerequisite, 104 or 210. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

251 (1). THE RELIGIONS OF INDIA AND THE FAR EAST (1 unit)

The history and development of scriptures, theologies, institutions, and cultic practices of Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism, and Shinto. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

Miss Mowry

252 (3). THE RELIGIONS OF THE MIDDLE EAST (1 unit)

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam within the cultural context of the Middle East. Some consideration of earlier religious movements which influenced these traditions, e.g., Zoroastrianism. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

Miss Mowry

254 (3). MODERN RELIGIOUS MOVEMENTS (1 unit)

An examination of Protestantism, Catholicism, and Judaism in the modern world, and the responses of these movements to their Biblical and classical traditions, to social and political crises, and to each other. Prerequisite, 104 or 210.

Mr. Denbeaux

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

306 (1). SEMINAR. THE OLD TESTAMENT (1 unit)

A systematic study of important religious ideas of the Old Testament. Prerequisite, 206.

Mr. Lacheman

307 (2). SEMINAR. THE NEW TESTAMENT (1 unit)

An intensive study of selected New Testament issues. Prerequisite, 204.

311 (2). THEOLOGY AND ITS EXPRESSION IN LITERATURE (1 unit)

An examination of the relationships between poetic imagination and theological development. The writings of a major theological figure to be read in connection with works selected from the field of literature and drama. Open to students who have taken 3 units in Biblical History, or 104 and 1 unit of grade II work in literature.

Mr. Denbeaux

315 (1). SEMINAR. THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT (1 unit)

An intensive study of a major doctrine emphasizing the thought of one theologian. Prerequisite, 216.

Mr. Denbeaux

316 (3). SEMINAR. CHRISTIAN ETHICS (1 unit)

An intensive study of one ethical problem or set of related problems with readings in relevant theological sources. Prerequisite, 208.

Mr. Johnson

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of majors in the senior year.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open to seniors by permission.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

Students majoring in Biblical history are required to take 104, 204, and either 206 or 216, and are advised to elect at least two seminars, 306 or 307, and 315 or 316.

Students interested in the original language of the New Testament are encouraged to confer with the Department of Greek.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

PROFESSORS CREIGHTON, WILSON, WYCKOFF, FISKE, PADYKULA (Chairman); ASSISTANT PROFESSORS WIDMAYER^a, GAUTHIER, SHOOP, HARRISON, CONANT; INSTRUCTORS: MRS. MELVIN, MR. BIBB, MISS SMITHSON; LECTURER: MRS. JONES.

Unless otherwise noted all courses meet for five periods of lecture, discussion, and laboratory weekly in Terms I and II, and for ten periods weekly in Term III.

102 (1) (2). BIOLOGY OF ORGANISMS (1 unit)

Investigations of plants, microorganisms, and animals through observations and experimentation, studying their similarities and differences. Open to all undergraduates except those who have taken 105. The Staff

105 (1) (3). ANIMAL BIOLOGY (1 unit)

Investigations of representative animals through observations and experimentation. Emphasis on the development of organ systems; some work in embryology and the theory of organic evolution. Open to all undergraduates except those who have taken 102. The Staff

106 (2) (3). CELL BIOLOGY (1 unit)

Investigations of cells and organisms through observation and experimentation. Study of cell structure, cell chemistry, energy relationships, and genetics. Open to all undergraduates, except those who have taken [101]†. The Staff

201 (3). ENVIRONMENTAL BIOLOGY (1 unit)

Limiting factors of the environment, human populations, pollution, pesticides, parasites, and biological control. Major habitats, biogeography, and succession. Studies in field and laboratory. Open to freshmen and sophomores who have taken 1 unit of biology, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite.

^a Absent on leave.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

Mr. Shoop

202 (1). COMPARATIVE ANATOMY (1 unit)

Comparative anatomy of the chordates with emphasis on evolutionary trends within the vertebrate group. Dissection of representative forms including the dogfish and the cat. Open to freshmen and sophomores who have taken 102 or 105, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite.

Mrs. Conant

203 (1). BOTANY (1 unit)

Plant biology emphasizing the structure and evolution of seed plants, ferns, mosses, algae, and fungi. Open to freshmen and sophomores who have taken 102 or the equivalent, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite.

Miss Creighton

204 (3). MICROBIOLOGY (1 unit)

Structure, growth, reproduction, and activities of microorganisms, their interactions with the environment, and their economic uses. Open to freshmen and sophomores who have completed 1 unit in science, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. Four periods of lecture and four periods of laboratory a week, or with one period of demonstration a week and papers in place of laboratory.

Mrs. Wyckoff

205 (1). GENETICS (1 unit)

Principles of inheritance and their applications to other biological problems. Prerequisite [101]†, 106, or the equivalent. Two periods of lecture and demonstrations and one period of discussion.

Miss Creighton

206 (2). HISTOLOGY-CYTOLOGY I: ANIMAL TISSUES (1 unit)

The microscopic organization of animal cells and tissues. Ultrastructural and cytochemical features considered, especially in relation to functional activity. Laboratory study includes direct experience with selected histological and histochemical techniques. Prerequisite, [101]† or 106, and 102 or 105 or 202 or the equivalent.

Miss Padykula, Miss Gauthier, Miss Smithson

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

301 (1). CELL PHYSIOLOGY (1 unit)

Chemical and physical phenomena of life processes and molecular mechanisms underlying structure and function of cells. Prerequisite, [101]† or 106, and either 102 or 105, and Chemistry 107, or by permission. Chemistry 201 is recommended. Mrs. Wilson

302 (2). ANIMAL PHYSIOLOGY (1 unit)

Factors affecting the operation of organ systems in animals. Emphasis on the vertebrates. Prerequisite, 301 or 321, or by permission.

Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Harrison

303 (2).° PLANT PHYSIOLOGY (1 unit)

Hormonal and other aspects of plant growth and development, physiology of reproduction, mineral nutrition, water relations, photosynthesis, and selected topics. Prerequisite, 301 or 321, or by permission. Mr. Bibb

304 (3). HISTOLOGY-CYTOLOGY II: ANIMAL ORGAN SYSTEMS (1 unit)

Analysis of the microscopic organization of organ systems, particularly those of the mammal. Detailed examination of selected specialized cells; the relationship of ultrastructural and cytochemical features to characteristic physiological processes. Prerequisite, 206.

Miss Padykula, Miss Gauthier, Miss Smithson

305 (2).° ADVANCED GENETICS (1 unit)

Principles of heredity and cytological and biochemical aspects of gene structure and function. Prerequisite, 205 and either 301 or 321. Five periods of lecture, discussion, and laboratory. Mrs. Melvin

306 (2). EMBRYOLOGY (1 unit)

Development from the fertilized egg through formation of organ systems. Study of morphogenesis in vertebrates and differentiation dynamics in many organisms. Prerequisite, 202 or 301 or 321. Mrs. Jones

307 (1).° POPULATION AND COMMUNITY ECOLOGY (1 unit)

Species population dynamics and structure; interspecific competition and speciation; community structure and metabolism. Extensive readings in primary source material. Laboratory and field studies. Prerequisite, 201; 301 recommended. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mr. Shoop

° Offered in alternate years.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

308 (1).^{*} PLANT MORPHOGENESIS (1 unit)

Development of form in plants; internal and external factors affecting morphogenesis. Preparation of tissues for microscopic study. Prerequisite, 203, 205, and 301. 303 is recommended. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

309 (1). GENERAL BACTERIOLOGY (1 unit)

Structure of bacteria, their physiological processes, and their environmental and biological interrelationships. Emphasis on current bacteriological techniques. Prerequisite, 2 units in biology and Chemistry 103 or 106 or a more advanced course. Mrs. Wyckoff

310 (2).^{*} ADVANCED BACTERIOLOGY AND IMMUNOLOGY (1 unit)

Systematic study of bacteria, including serological relationships and roles in disease and immunity. Consideration of recent developments including bacterial genetics. Prerequisite, 309, or permission of the instructor. Mrs. Wyckoff

311 (2).^{*} VIROLOGY (1 unit)

Nature of viruses and their interaction with plant, animal, and bacterial hosts. Experiments with bacterial viruses. Prerequisite, 309 or 310, or permission of the instructor. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mrs. Wyckoff

312 (1).^{*} ENDOCRINOLOGY (1 unit)

Intrinsic chemical control through hormones produced by endocrine glands and neurosecretory centers. Individual problems. Prerequisite, 302. Mrs. Fiske

313.^{*} METABOLISM AND NUTRITION (1 unit)

Physiological processes by which foods are utilized for growth, repair, and maintenance. Metabolism of vertebrates under normal and experimental conditions. Individual problems. Prerequisite or corequisite, 302, and Chemistry 201 or [205]†. Four periods of lecture, discussion, and laboratory. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

319 (2). ADVANCED CYTOLOGY: ULTRASTRUCTURE AND CYTOCHEMISTRY (1 unit)

Introduction to the principles and major procedures of electron microscopy and cytochemistry. Emphasis on interpretation of ultrastructural and cytochemical features of cellular components, particularly as related to functional activity. Prerequisite, 304, and Chemistry 201 or [205]†. A knowledge of the basic principles of biochemistry strongly recommended. Miss Padykula, Miss Gauthier, Miss Smithson

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

- 321 (1).^{} BIOCHEMISTRY I (1 unit)
For description and prerequisite, see Chemistry 321.
- 322 (2).^{} BIOCHEMISTRY II (1 unit)
For description and prerequisite, see Chemistry 322.
- 330 (2). SEMINAR (1 unit)
Intensive study of one problem or a series of problems. Critical evaluation of experimental methods and analysis of results. Emphasis on source material. Subject for 1967-68: Mind and matter. Open by permission to students who have had 5 or more units of work in the department.
Mrs. Harrison, Miss Goodfield
- 340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)
Required of majors in the senior year.
- 350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)
Open to juniors and seniors by permission.
- 370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)
Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

A biology major must include [101]† or 106, and 102 or 105, or their equivalents; a grade I course in physics, and Chemistry 103 or 106, or their equivalents. Biology 205 and Chemistry 107 and 201 are strongly recommended. Majors are urged to take Physics 104 or 106 and a grade II course in physics, and are advised that a reading knowledge of one or more of the following languages is required (in general) for admission to graduate work: French, German, Russian.

Within the major students may design a program in general biology or one which emphasizes subjects dealing with animals or plants or microorganisms. A broad training in the various aspects of biology is recommended.

Students interested in an interdepartmental major in molecular biology are referred to the Extradepartmental section where the program is described. They should consult with the chairmen of Biological Sciences and Chemistry.

Pre-medical students are referred to the requirements given on p. 37 of the Catalogue.

Biology 305, 308, 310, 311, 312, 313, 319, 321, 322, and 330 are particularly appropriate for graduate students.

^{} Counts as related work but not as part of a major in biological sciences.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

CHEMISTRY

PROFESSORS CRAWFORD, WEBSTER^a, ROCK (Chairman); ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WANG; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS DUDEK, LOEHLIN, WAGNER.

Unless otherwise noted all chemistry courses meet for two periods of lecture and one three and one-half hour laboratory appointment weekly in Terms I and II, and for four periods of lecture and two three and one-half hour laboratory appointments weekly in Term III.

103 (2). INTRODUCTION TO CHEMISTRY AND CHEMICAL STRUCTURE

(1 unit)

Properties of matter, atomic structure, bonding, and stereochemistry, stressing the relationship between structure and properties. Open to students who have taken Physics 100, 103, or 105, or the equivalent, and who have not offered chemistry for admission. Three periods weekly.

The Staff

106 (2) (3). CHEMICAL STRUCTURE

(1 unit)

Same topics as in 103. Open to students with one admission unit in chemistry who have taken Physics 100, 103, or 105, or the equivalent.

The Staff (2), Mr. Loehlin (3)

107 (1) (3). EQUILIBRIUM

(1 unit)

Acid-base, complex-ion, solubility, redox, and solvent-distribution equilibria. Prerequisite, 103 or 106.

Mrs. Dudek

200 (2). CONTEMPORARY PROBLEMS IN CHEMICAL STRUCTURE (1 unit)

A consideration of some fundamental chemical problems encountered in the determination of the structure and behavior of a selected complex chemical compound. Open only to juniors and seniors who do not have college credit in chemistry. Prerequisite, Physics 100, 103, or 105, or the equivalent. (Not given in 1967-68.)

Mr. Wang

201 (1). ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

(1 unit)

A study of the synthesis and reactions of typical organic compounds. Prerequisite or corequisite, 107; or Advanced Placement credit in chemistry. An additional period required for Advanced Placement students.

Miss Crawford

202 (2). CHEMICAL THERMODYNAMICS

(1 unit)

Elementary thermodynamics; enthalpy and free energy of chemical systems; a statistical approach to the third law. Open to students who have taken 201, and a year of secondary school physics or a term of physics in college. Prerequisite or corequisite, Mathematics 109, or by permission. An additional period required for Advanced Placement students.

Mr. Loehlin

210 (2). ORGANIC CHEMISTRY (1 unit)

A continuation of Chemistry 201 stressing the mechanisms of organic and bio-organic reactions. Prerequisite, 201. Not to be counted toward the major.

Mr. Wagner

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

301 (1). KINETICS AND MECHANISM I (1 unit)

Correlation of structure and reactivities, primarily in organic systems. Elementary chemical kinetics will be introduced. Prerequisite, 202.

Miss Rock, Mr. Wang

302 (2). KINETICS AND MECHANISM II (1 unit)

Correlation of structure and reactivities, primarily in inorganic systems. Further development of chemical kinetics. Prerequisite, 301.

Mrs. Dudek, Mr. Loehlin

311 (1) STRUCTURAL CHEMISTRY I (1 unit)

A theoretical and experimental study of molecular structure; spectroscopy, elementary quantum theory, symmetry properties. Open to students who have taken Mathematics 200 or 204 (1), and who have taken or are taking both a second unit of college physics and Chemistry 301.

Mrs. Dudek, Mr. Loehlin

312 (2). STRUCTURAL CHEMISTRY II (1 unit)

Continuation of 311. Prerequisite, 311, and prerequisite or corequisite, 302.

Miss Rock

317.* CHEMICAL INSTRUMENTATION. (1 unit)

The use of instruments in the study of the composition of matter. Prerequisite, 202. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

318.* SELECTED TOPICS IN INORGANIC CHEMISTRY. (1 unit)

Ordinarily a different subject each year. Prerequisite, 202. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

* Offered in alternate years.

319 (1).^{*} SELECTED TOPICS IN ORGANIC CHEMISTRY (1 unit)

Ordinarily a different subject each year. Subject for 1967-68: Free radicals in solution and molecular rearrangements. Prerequisite or co-requisite, 301. Mr. Wang

320 (3).^{*} SELECTED TOPICS IN THEORETICAL CHEMISTRY (1 unit)

Ordinarily a different subject each year. Subject for 1967-68: Theory of solutions. Prerequisite, 202. Miss Rock

321 (2). BIOCHEMISTRY I (1 unit)

The study of informational macromolecules, the genetic code, protein synthesis, protein structure, and the mechanism of enzyme and coenzyme action. Prerequisite, 301. Mr. Wagner

322 (3). BIOCHEMISTRY II (1 unit)

The study of biochemical energetics, metabolism, oxidative phosphorylation, and the mechanism of biological energy utilization. Prerequisite, 321. Mr. Wagner

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of majors in the senior year.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open by permission to students who have taken at least 5 units in chemistry.

365 (1) (2). HONORS STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open to honors candidates in the department.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

In addition to 8 units in chemistry, which must include 201, 202, 301, 302, 311, and 312, the major requires 2 units of college physics and Mathematics 200 or 204 (1). It is strongly recommended that 1 unit of physics be 201 and that at least one additional unit in mathematics be elected.

Students interested in an interdepartmental major in molecular biology are referred to the Extradepartmental section where the program is described. They should consult with the chairman of Biological Sciences and the director of Molecular Biology.

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

Students are advised to acquire a reading knowledge of German and of either French or Russian.

Premedical students are referred to the requirements given on p. 37.

The American Chemical Society has established a set of requirements which it considers essential for the training of chemists. Students wishing to meet the standard of an accredited chemist as defined by this society should consult the Department of Chemistry.

PLACEMENT AND EXEMPTION EXAMINATIONS

Students entering with scores of 4 or 5 on the Advanced Placement Examination of the College Entrance Examination Board will be placed in Chemistry 201. Other students who have had Advanced Placement courses or two years of secondary school chemistry or other unusually good preparation should apply for an examination covering the work in Chemistry 106 and/or 107. Such students will be expected to submit laboratory notebooks or reports.

ECONOMICS

PROFESSORS CLEMENCE (Chairman), BELL^a; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR GOLDMAN; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR MORRISON; INSTRUCTORS: MISS GREENWOOD, MRS. CRANDALL, MR. BRODE, MR. ALDRICH.

100 (1) (2) (3). SURVEY OF MODERN ECONOMICS I (1 unit)

An introduction to economic science: the systematic study of the ways people make a living. Analysis of economic problems and policies with special reference to the United States today. Organization and operation of business enterprise; labor and management; prosperity and depression; money and banking; the national income and its distribution. Open to all undergraduates. Weekly tutorials in (1) and (2) for freshmen. (See Economics 355.)

The Staff

101 (1) (2) (3). SURVEY OF MODERN ECONOMICS II (1 unit)

Continuation of 100. Competition and monopoly; demand and supply; analysis of firms and industries; balance of payments; foreign aid and foreign trade; economic growth; comparison of the American economy with others. Prerequisite, 100.

The Staff

201 (1) (2). ECONOMIC ANALYSIS (1 unit)

Micro-economic theory; analysis of the individual household, firm, and industry. Prerequisite, 101.

Mr. Clemence

^a Absent on leave.

202 (1) (2). ECONOMIC ANALYSIS (1 unit)

Macro-economic theory; aggregate analysis of income, output, and employment. Prerequisite, 101. Mrs. Crandall (1), Miss Greenwood (2)

203 (3).^{*} ECONOMIC HISTORY (1 unit)

Development of modern economic society; the emergence of capitalism, the market system and organized economic activity. Open to students who have taken or are taking 101. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

Mr. Morrison

204 (1).^{*} AMERICAN ECONOMIC HISTORY (1 unit)

The development of the American economy from its agrarian beginnings to its contemporary complex industrial structure. Prerequisite, same as for 203.

Mr. Morrison

205 (1). CORPORATION FINANCE (1 unit)

The development of the modern corporation and its place in the economy. Corporation organization and financial management. Financial markets; the technical and fundamental aspects of the stock market. Government regulation of corporations and markets. Prerequisite, 101.

Mr. Aldrich

208 (2).^{*} ECONOMIC POWER IN THE UNITED STATES (1 unit)

The structure of a "mixed" economy and the sources of economic power in labor, business, and government. Prerequisite, same as for 203.

Mr. Morrison

209 (1). THE INTERNATIONAL ECONOMY (1 unit)

Institutions and problems of trade, development, and international economic organization. Prerequisite, 101. (Not given in 1967-68.)

Miss Greenwood

211 (2) (3). ELEMENTARY STATISTICS (1 unit)

A non-mathematical approach to statistical techniques and their applications in economic analysis. Problems and exercises for machine calculations. Prerequisite, same as for 203.

Mr. Morrison

212 (1).^{*} ECONOMICS OF ACCOUNTING (1 unit)

Economic analysis in the framework of accounting theory and data. Prerequisite, 101. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

Mrs. Bell

215 (3). ECONOMIC CONTROVERSY (1 unit)

Analysis and policy considerations in current economic problems. Prerequisite, 101 and permission of the instructor.

Mr. Goldman

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

301 (1). COMPARATIVE ECONOMIC SYSTEMS (1 unit)

The economics of capitalism, socialism, fascism, and communism. Prerequisite, 201 or 202. Mr. Goldman

302 (2). ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT (1 unit)

The problems and possibilities of the less developed countries. Prerequisite, 201 or 202. Mr. Goldman

303 (2). ECONOMIC FLUCTUATIONS (1 unit)

Theoretical, statistical, and historical analysis of the capitalist process. Seasonal variation, cycles, and trends. Emphasis on major fluctuations and their relations to public policies. Prerequisite, 201 and 211.

Mr. Clemence

304 (3). MONETARY THEORY AND POLICY (1 unit)

The structure and mechanisms of the monetary system. Monetary theory, the techniques, the history, the effectiveness, and the controversies of monetary policy. Prerequisite, 202 Miss Greenwood

305 (1). THE STRUCTURE OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY (1 unit)

Analysis of the structure, conduct, and performance of particular industries in the economy. Prerequisite, 201. Mrs. Crandall

307 (1). CONSUMPTION AND MARKETING (1 unit)

Analysis of the theory of consumer choice and of market models applied to patterns of income, spending, and saving. Prerequisite, 201, 202, and 211. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mrs. Bell

310 (1). PUBLIC FINANCE (1 unit)

Principles, practices, and economic effects of government expenditure, revenue, debt, and taxation. Special emphasis on current issues of fiscal policy and reform at federal, state, and local levels of government. Prerequisite, 202. Mr. Morrison

314 (2). INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS (1 unit)

Theory of international trade. Methods of adjustment to disequilibrium in balance of payments. The impact of international movements of commodities and capital on economic activity in the past and since World War II. Current problems: international liquidity, economic integration, the United States balance of payments. Prerequisite, 201 and 202.

Miss Greenwood

315 (3). HISTORY OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT (1 unit)

The development of economic thought from ancient to modern times. A brief survey of early economic ideas followed by a more detailed examination of the history of economics since 1776. The systems of the leading economists in the light of their own times and of the present day. Prerequisite, 201. Mr. Clemence

317 (2). QUANTITATIVE ECONOMIC ANALYSIS (1 unit)

The combining of elementary mathematics and statistics with economic theory to explain and predict the behavior of the economy in its parts and as a whole. Prerequisite, 201 and 202, and either 211 or Mathematics 203, and Mathematics 200, [202]†, or 204. Mr. Brode

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of majors in the senior year.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open by permission to juniors and seniors who have taken 201 and 202.

355 (1-2). TUTORIAL AND SEMINAR (2 units)

A survey of economic theory and policy: seminar reports on research and independent study; 100 tutorials conducted by each student. Open upon department recommendation to senior majors. Mr. Morrison

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

A student who plans to take any course after 101 should consult either her instructor or the department chairman.

Courses 201 and 202 are required for the major and should be taken immediately after 101. Economics 211, or Mathematics 203, is also required. Economics 203 and 204 are strongly recommended.

Students interested in graduate work should consult the chairman as soon as possible.

EDUCATION

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR ULICH (Chairman); LECTURERS: MRS. KELLER, MR. REGAN.

101 (1) (2) (3). PLATO (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Philosophy 101.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

101 (1) (2). INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY (1 unit)
For description and prerequisite, see Psychology 101.

103 (1) (2) (3). PHILOSOPHICAL ANALYSIS (1 unit)
For description and prerequisite, see Philosophy 103.

200 (1) (2) (3). PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION (1 unit)
The role of philosophical thought and analysis in the clarification of major problems of education. Discussion of the aims of schooling and the relation of knowledge to individual and social values. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and by permission to freshmen in Term III.
Mrs. Ulich

201 (2).^{*} HISTORY OF EDUCATIONAL IDEAS (1 unit)
Study of the interrelationship between educational ideas and their historical setting, their influence on the educational process, and their contribution to the general development of culture. Prerequisite, 200. (Not offered in 1967-68.)
Mrs. Ulich

202 (2).^{*} THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL (1 unit)
The organization of the elementary school, its curriculum, the teacher's work, and current educational policies. Emphasis placed on the development and characteristics of elementary school children. Observation in schools required. Prerequisite, 200. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

205 (1). THE EDUCATION OF THE YOUNG CHILD (1 unit)
A survey of the theory and practice of early childhood education, including the study of young children as members of society who are responding to educational influences. Four hours a week of observation and participation at the Page Memorial School. Open to juniors and seniors who have taken 200 and a course in psychology. Mrs. Keller

207 (1) (2). CHILD PSYCHOLOGY (1 unit)
For description and prerequisite, see Psychology 207.

212 (2) (3).^{*} Personality (1 unit)
For description and prerequisite, see Psychology 212.

216 (1). DEVELOPMENT OF PERCEPTION AND THINKING (1 unit)
For description and prerequisite, see Psychology 216.

219 (1). LEARNING (1 unit)
For description and prerequisite, see Psychology 219.

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

300 (1). SECONDARY EDUCATION (1 unit)

The aims, organization, and administration of secondary schools considered in relation to their social, political, and economic environments. Criteria for evaluating curricula and classroom problems included. Prerequisite, 200. Mrs. Ulich

301 (2).^{*} EDUCATIONAL PROBLEMS AND PRACTICES IN OTHER COUNTRIES (1 unit)

A comparative study of contemporary educational policies and plans in older and newer nations. Prerequisite, 200. Mrs. Ulich

302 (2). METHODS OF TEACHING (1 unit)

Study of teaching objectives and classroom procedures. Review of learning theories. Class divided into groups for six weeks of intensive work in the methods and materials of a specific subject matter; for example, English, foreign language, social science, science. Observation in school required. Prerequisite, 300, or by permission. Mrs. Ulich

303 (3). CURRICULUM AND SUPERVISED TEACHING (1 unit)

Study of curriculum and sequence of courses offered in secondary school. Methods and supervised teaching in student's major teaching field. Prerequisite, 302. The Staff

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

Certification for secondary school teaching upon graduation is possible only for students who complete 302 and 303. Massachusetts requires at least two additional units in education and at least one unit of grade II psychology. Most other states require at least three additional units in education and one of grade II psychology. The recommended program is:

Freshman year:	Psychology 101
Sophomore year:	Education 200 and Psychology 212 or 219
Junior year:	Education 300, and 201 or 301
Senior year:	Education 302 and 303.

Although the College does not offer a major in education students may take up to 6 units. Students who intend to teach should (in their freshman year if possible) consult the department concerning the various city and state requirements for the certificate to teach and the appropriate undergraduate preparation for fifth year and paid intern programs which combine professional study with further study in teaching fields and lead to Master's degrees honored by all states. (See also p. 36.)

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

ANNE L. PAGE MEMORIAL SCHOOL

DIRECTOR: MRS. KELLER. TEACHERS: MRS. BARLOW, MISS COGSWELL, MRS. GRIGGS, MRS. NYARY, MRS. NAPOLEON, MISS MURPHY.

The Anne L. Page Memorial School for Children from three to five years of age is the college laboratory school. It is a center for child study, observation, and participation for students from all departments of the College, and it is especially helpful to students working in the Departments of Education and of Psychology.

ENGLISH

PROFESSORS HOUGHTON, MICHAEL, PRETTYMAN, CORSA, LEVER, QUINN, LAYMAN^a, ADAMS, FERRY (Chairman); ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS GARIS^a, SPACKS, CRAIG; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS JACKSON, GOLD^a, ASWELL, KURTZ, PHILLIPS, PINSKY; INSTRUCTORS: MRS. HOOVER, MRS. SABIN, MRS. SEELIG, MRS. YOUNGREN; LECTURER: MISS BERKMAN.

100 (1). STYLE AND ORGANIZATION (1 unit)

The development of writing skills. Accuracy, expressiveness, logical clarity, and the organization of complex meanings in writing and speaking. Techniques of exposition, argumentation, and research. Frequent individual conferences. Required of freshmen. The Staff

103 (1) (2) (3). INTRODUCTION TO ENGLISH POETRY: 1590-1820 (1 unit)

Introduction to critical analysis through the reading of poems by Shakespeare, Donne, Milton, Pope, and Keats in their historical contexts. Not open to students who have taken [106]†. The Staff

108 (3). INTERPRETATIONS OF MAN IN WESTERN LITERATURE (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Extradepartmental 108.

Courses 200, 201, and 202 are planned as workshops in writing, with informal group meetings and frequent individual conferences. While the emphasis is on constant practice in writing, each course requires a critical reading of pertinent examples of the type of writing being studied. Courses 301 and 302 continue the same plan at an advanced level.

^a Absent on leave.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

200 (1) (2). SHORT NARRATIVE (1 unit)

Sketches and the short story. For interested students, experience in the writing of one-act plays. Prerequisite, 100. Not open to students who are taking another writing course. Miss Lever, Mrs. Hoover

201 (2). THE CRITICAL ESSAY (1 unit)

Training in the organization and presentation of literary analyses and judgments. Reading of some of the best contemporary criticism. Open to students who have taken or are taking 103 or [106]†. Mr. Kurtz

202 (1). POETRY (1 unit)

The writing of short lyrics, and the study of the art and craft of poetry. Open to juniors and seniors, and by permission to sophomores.

Mr. Pinsky

210 (2) (3). MODERN POETRY (1 unit)

English and American poetry and poets, recent and contemporary. Open to students who have taken 103 or [106]†; and by permission to sophomores who have taken [102] or Extradepartmental 108; and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite.

Miss Berkman, Mr. Pinsky (2), Mr. Ferry, Mrs. Sabin, Mrs. Youngren (3)

212 (1) (3). MODERN DRAMA (1 unit)

The study of English, American, and European drama from Ibsen to the present day. Prerequisite, same as for 210.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

The above courses with the exception of 312 and the writing workshops may be elected to fulfill the college requirement in literature.

Although 100 counts for the degree it does not count toward a major in English and is not included within the maximum number of units (14) permitted in one department.

For students interested in writing, a sequence of practice courses is provided, but no two writing courses may be taken simultaneously. Enrollment in writing workshops is, in general, limited to fifteen.

A student majoring in English is required to take English 103 and at least one of the following four courses: 232, 233, 234, or 235, ordinarily following 103 and ordinarily preceeding other grade II courses. (A student who has taken [106]† may not take 103, and is not required to take 232, 233, 234, or 235, though these courses are open to her.) All majors must also take either 217 or 220, 309, and two additional units in literature before the modern period.

Students wishing to design a major focusing on drama are referred to the statement under Theatre Studies in the Extradepartmental section.

Students of at least B standing in the work of the department will have first consideration in applying for admission to seminars and 350 work.

Knowledge of English and American history, of the course of European thought, and of at least one foreign literature at an advanced level is of great value to the student of English. See for example, History 213, 217, 310; Philosophy 203, 207, 208, 209; grade II and grade III courses in foreign literatures; see also Greek 104; Extradepartmental 108, 201, 202.

FRENCH

PROFESSORS LAFEUILLE, GALAND, FRANÇOIS (Chairman); ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR McCULLOCH; ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BLAKE;
INSTRUCTORS: MISS CROCHET, MRS. LOUTFI, MR. STAMBOLIAN,
MRS. SHENTON, MISS STANLEY, MISS DOUBINS, MISS GUICHIAOUA;
LECTURERS: MISS MCPHERRIN, MISS BATICHEFF.

All courses are conducted in French. Oral expression and practice in writing are stressed.

The department reserves the right to place a new student in the course for which she seems best prepared, regardless of the number of units she has offered for admission.

Students who wish to elect a French course in Term III and who have taken no French in Terms I and II should consult the chairman of the department.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

Attention is called to the opportunity for residence in the French Center, Tower Court.

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

Course 104 or any grade II course except 222 and 224 may be elected towards fulfilling the college requirement in literature.

Course 100 counts for the degree but does not count toward the major. Students who begin with 100 in college and who plan to major in French should consult the chairman of the department during the second term of their freshman year. A student may not count toward the major both 102 and 104. Course 104 may not be elected by students who have taken both 100 and 102.

Students taking their first grade II literature course are urged also to elect 222.

Upperclassmen majoring in French (with the exception of those who carried 2 units of grade II in the freshman year) should not elect more than 3 units of grade II without permission of the department. Majors are required to take two of the following courses: 222, 308, 309. In some cases 224 may also be required.

Related courses in art, history (especially 210 and 211), philosophy, English, those courses in foreign languages that meet the literature requirements, and Extradepartmental 330 are recommended.

Students who plan to do graduate work in French are advised to begin or to pursue the study of a second modern language; those who plan to do graduate work in comparative literature are advised to continue the study of one or more other modern literatures and to acquire proficiency in at least one classical language.

365 (1) (2). HONORS STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open to honors candidates in the department.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

A major is based on 6 units of geology exclusive of 290 and 340, 2 units of chemistry, and 2 units of physics. The area of concentration must include Mathematics 109 or its equivalent, and at least 2 units of work at grade II or grade III level in chemistry, physics, mathematics, or astronomy.

The department will recommend summer field courses given by other colleges (dealing chiefly with the Rocky Mountain region) to interested students who have completed 2 units or more of geology at Wellesley. Credit may be given for such courses provided the student's plans are approved in advance by the department.

GERMAN

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS SALDITT, GOTH (Chairman); INSTRUCTOR: MR. MILSTEIN; LECTURER: MRS. DEUTSCH

The language of the classroom in all courses is almost exclusively German. The student thus has constant practice in hearing, speaking, and writing German.

Open to honors candidates in the department.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

To fulfill the college literature requirement students may elect any course in Greek or Latin except Greek 100, [101]†, 206, Latin 101, 103, 206, 215.

Greek 104 may not be counted toward a major in Greek. Latin 104 may not be counted toward a major in Latin.

All students majoring in Greek are required to complete 201, 205, 301, and 308 or 309; students planning graduate work are advised to elect 206.

All students majoring in Latin are required to complete 201, 211, 214, 311, and are advised to elect 307 or 314. 206 is strongly recommended for those planning to teach.

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

Students majoring in Greek or Latin are advised to elect some work in the other language. It should be noted that work in both Greek and Latin is essential for graduate students in the classics.

Courses in ancient history, ancient art, ancient philosophy, and classical mythology and Extradepartmental 330 are recommended as valuable related work.

Students interested in an interdepartmental major in classical archaeology are referred to the Extradepartmental section where the program is described.

Qualified students may fulfill the second unit of the Biblical history requirement by electing Biblical History 210, THE FIRST THREE GOSPELS IN GREEK.

Students interested in medieval Latin should consult the department chairman.

Latin students who offer Advanced Placement Latin 5 should elect 211 and 214; Advanced Placement Latin 4 normally leads to 201 but under special circumstances permission may be given to elect 211 and 214.

Required of majors in the senior year.
- 350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)
Open by permission to juniors and seniors.
- 360 (3). HONORS SEMINAR (1 unit)
Selected problems in historical thought. Open to juniors who are candidates for honors in History and to other honors candidates by permission. (Not offered in 1967-68.)
- 365 (1) (2). HONORS STUDY (1 or 2 units)
Open to honors candidates in the department.
- 370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)
Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

Courses 100 and 101 are required of all majors unless they have had equivalent preparation. Students who have taken a colloquium in medieval history may fulfill the 100 requirement by taking 1 unit of advanced work in pre-1600 European history. A colloquium on topics in modern history may substitute for 101 if followed by 1 unit of advanced work in post-1600 European history. Freshmen with extensive background in European history (modern, and ancient or medieval) may elect 203. Major students are urged to distribute their work so that they will have some acquaintance with more than one era or civilization and some knowledge of the development of historical thought. A major may be unspecialized or it may emphasize a period (e.g., ancient, medieval), an area (e.g., Western Europe, the Far East), a special aspect of history (e.g., diplomatic, intellectual), or a single country. A student wishing to design a major in history focusing on Russia should consult the statement under the Department of Russian and the chairman of the Department of History.

Course 218 counts as related work but not as part of the major.

Seminars are open by permission to qualified juniors and seniors who have taken 4 units in history. In some cases appropriate advanced work in related departments may be substituted for part of the prerequisite in history. Since enrollments in seminars are limited, a student wishing to apply for admission to one or more should fill out an application blank obtainable at the department office.

Colloquia are open by permission to a limited number of freshman and sophomore applicants. Application blanks may be obtained from class deans or the department office.

ITALIAN

PROFESSOR AVITABILE (Chairman); INSTRUCTOR: MR. Oldcorn.

All courses are conducted in Italian. In all courses except seminars some work will be required in the laboratory.

Qualified students are permitted to spend the junior year in Italy. See p. 35, The Junior Year Abroad.

100 (1-2). ELEMENTARY ITALIAN (2 units)

Development of basic language skills. Frequent oral and written exercises. Reading of modern short stories and plays. A general view of Italian civilization. Three periods. The Staff

202 (3). INTERMEDIATE ITALIAN (1 unit)

Review of basic language structures. Written and oral practice to develop fluency. Conversational topics of contemporary interest, such as "the city," "the family," "periodical literature," "the performing arts." Prerequisite, 100 or its equivalent. Miss Avitabile

205 (1). INTRODUCTION TO LITERARY ANALYSIS (1 unit)

Intensive practice in written and oral expression through the critical analysis of selected literary works. Prerequisite, 100, or its equivalent. Three periods. Miss Avitabile

206 (1). SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS OF ITALIAN LITERATURE: THE MODERN PERIOD (1 unit)

Important literary movements interpreted through the study and analysis of selected Romantic, Veristic, and contemporary works. Prerequisite, 202. Mr. Oldcorn

207 (2). SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS OF ITALIAN LITERATURE: THE MIDDLE AGES TO THE POST-RENAISSANCE (1 unit)

Important literary movements interpreted through the study and analysis of selected medieval, humanistic, and Renaissance works. Prerequisite, 205, or 206. Miss Avitabile

208 (3).^{*} EVOLUTION OF ITALIAN DRAMATIC LITERATURE (1 unit)

A critical and historical analysis of representative plays from the 13th century to the present. Prerequisite, 207, or by permission. Mr. Oldcorn

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

301 (1-2). DANTE (2 units)

A study of Dante's Divina Commedia and minor works. Prerequisite, 207, or 208. Miss Avitabile

306 (1). ITALIAN HUMANISM (1 unit)

The development of Renaissance civilization through the thought and literature of Italian humanists in the 14th and 15th centuries. A study of Petrarca's and Boccaccio's major works, and of selected works composed by authors such as Ficino, Alberti, Leonardo da Vinci, Poliziano, Lorenzo il Magnifico. Prerequisite, same as for 301. Mr. Oldcorn

307 (2). THE ITALIAN RENAISSANCE (1 unit)

The salient aspects of the Renaissance in relation to the development of Western civilization through the study of representative authors:

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

Ariosto, Machiavelli, Castiglione, Guicciardini, Cellini, Michelangelo, Bandello, Tasso, Bruno. Prerequisite, same as for 301. Mr. Oldcorn

309 (3).^o FROM VERISMO TO NEO-REALISM (1 unit)

A study of the main literary trends of the last century as seen in the works of representative authors such as Verga, Carducci, Pascoli, Pirandello, Moravia, Vittorini, Berto, Ungaretti. Prerequisite, same as for 301. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mr. Oldcorn

309 (2). SEMINAR. ITALIAN ROMANTICISM (1 unit)

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of all majors in the senior year.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open by permission to students who have completed 2 units in literature in the department.

365 (1) (2). HONORS STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open to honors candidates in the department.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

To fulfill the college literature requirement students may elect any course except 100 and 202.

Course 100 counts for the degree but does not count for the major.

Majors should plan to take 301, and 306 or 307; it is recommended that they take both 306 and 307.

Related work for majors: at least 2 units in one or more other literatures, ancient or modern, of which one may be Extradepartmental 330; 1 or more units in art, history, or philosophy.

Majors planning to do graduate work in Italian are advised to take at least 1 unit in French or Spanish literature and to have a reading knowledge of Latin or of a third Romance language.

LATIN

For courses offered in Latin, see GREEK AND LATIN, pp. 79-82.

^o Offered in alternate years.

MATHEMATICS

PROFESSOR SCHAFER (Chairman); ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS
EVANS^a, NORVIG; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS CORNELL, AUSLANDER; INSTRUCTORS: MR. GRAHAM, MR. COVER, MR. PRITZKER.

108 (1-2) (2-3). INTRODUCTION TO MATHEMATICAL THOUGHT (2 units)

Topics chosen to provide an understanding of creative thinking in mathematics. Material selected from such areas as number theory, algebraic and geometric structures, foundation of the real number system, set theory, and construction of transfinite numbers. Emphasis on concepts rather than techniques. Not open to students who have taken any other college mathematics course. The first term may be taken independently. The Staff

109 (1-2). ANALYTIC GEOMETRY, INTRODUCTION TO THE CALCULUS (2 units)

Differential calculus of algebraic and transcendental functions including applications to the geometry of the conic sections; introduction to integral calculus. Prerequisite, substantial work in the theory of trigonometric functions. The Staff

200 (1-2). DIFFERENTIAL AND INTEGRAL CALCULUS (2 units)

Study of differentiation and integration of algebraic and transcendental functions; introduction to infinite series. Prerequisite, analytic geometry and a substantial introduction to the calculus. By permission of the chairman, 203 or 206 may be substituted for the second term. The Staff

201 (3). CALCULUS OF FUNCTIONS OF SEVERAL REAL VARIABLES (1 unit)

Two and three dimensional vector algebra; three dimensional analytic geometry; partial differentiation; multiple integration. Prerequisite, 200. Mrs. Schafer

203 (3). PROBABILITY AND ELEMENTARY STATISTICS (1 unit)

Topics selected from the theory of sets, discrete probability for both single and multivariate random variables, probability density for a single continuous random variable, expectations, mean, standard deviation, and sampling from a normal population. Prerequisite, 109 or the equivalent. Mr. Norvig

^a Absent on leave.

204 (1-2). INTERMEDIATE CALCULUS (2 units)

Extension of the study of differential and integral calculus begun in 109. Prerequisite, 109. The first term may be taken independently. Students entering with Advanced Placement credit may substitute 206 for the first term. The Staff

206 (1) (3). LINEAR ALGEBRA (1 unit)

Systems of linear equations, vector spaces over the real and complex fields, linear transformations, matrices, determinants. Prerequisite, 109 or the equivalent. Mrs. Auslander (1), Mr. Gover (3)

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

301 (1).^{*} MATHEMATICAL STATISTICS (1 unit)

Topics include continuous multivariate densities, moment generating functions, sampling theory, estimation, confidence intervals, tests of statistical hypothesis and regression. Prerequisite, 203, and 201 or 204. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mr. Norvig

302 (1-2). ELEMENTS OF ANALYSIS (2 units)

Point set theory; study of convergence, continuity, differentiation and integration in finite dimensional Cartesian spaces. Prerequisite, 201 or 204, and in 1968-69 and thereafter, 206. The first term may be taken independently. Mr. Cornell

303 (3). DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS (1 unit)

An introductory course in ordinary differential equations. Prerequisite, 201, or 204; or by permission 200 or the first term of 204. Mrs. Auslander

305 (1-2). MODERN ALGEBRAIC THEORY (2 units)

Introduction to algebraic systems including groups, rings, integral domains, fields, abstract vector spaces. Prerequisite, 201 or 204, and prerequisite or corequisite, 206. The first term may be taken independently. Mrs. Schafer

309 (1).^{*} PROJECTIVE GEOMETRY (1 unit)

Concepts and theorems of projective geometry developed by both synthetic and analytic methods. Prerequisite, 200 or 204 (1). Mr. Graham

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

310 (2). FUNCTIONS OF A COMPLEX VARIABLE (1 unit)

Elementary functions and their mapping properties; integration theory; series expansions of analytic functions. Prerequisite, 302 (1).

Mr. Norvig

311 (2).^{*} ELEMENTARY TOPOLOGY (1 unit)

Elementary topology with applications to function theory: set theory, metric spaces, mappings, and related topics. Prerequisite or corequisite, 302. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of majors in the senior year.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open to juniors and seniors by permission.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)

Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

A major in mathematics must include 206, the first term of 302 and of 305, and the second term of 302 or 310. Two units of grade III, exclusive of 340, must be taken in the senior year.

Course 108 is intended primarily as a terminal course. It may not be counted in the major. 109 is intended for students with a serious interest in science and mathematics. Students electing 200 who expect to continue in mathematics, physics, or astronomy should, if possible, elect 201 in the same year. Those planning to elect both units of a 2-unit course should take both in the same year.

Students expecting to do graduate work in mathematics should elect the second term of 302 and of 305, 309, 310, and 311. They are also advised to acquire a reading knowledge of one or more of the following languages: French, German, Russian.

Students who expect to teach at the high school level are advised to elect the second term of 302, and 309 and 310.

MUSIC

PROFESSOR LAMB; ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR HERRMANN; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS JANDER, CRAWFORD, BARRY (Chairman); INSTRUCTOR: MRS. DUFF.

INSTRUCTORS IN PERFORMING MUSIC: MR. ZIGHERA (Cello), MR. GOETZE (Piano), MR. TAYLOR (Organ), MRS. PAPPOUTSAKIS (Harp), MR. SPEYER (Oboe and English Horn), MR. SHAPIRO (Horn), MR. WRZESIEN (Clarinet), MISS PREBLE (Flute), MRS. VIVIAN (Organ), MRS. DHORITY (Piano), MRS. O'DONNELL (Voice), MR. PINTO (Violin), MISS MARTY (Assistant in Chamber Music).

101 (1-2). INTRODUCTORY COURSE (2 units)

The fundamentals of musicianship. Development of reading and listening skills. Introduction to traditional harmony. Open to all undergraduates. Three periods: one lecture and two section meetings.

Miss Barry, Mr. Lamb

103 (1-2). INTRODUCTION TO THE LITERATURE OF MUSIC (2 units)

An historical survey course designed to develop the student's musical understanding, insight, and powers of observation through the study of music of various styles and periods. No previous knowledge of music required. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have taken no other course in the department. Not to be counted toward a major. Two periods of lecture and one section meeting.

Mr. Herrmann, Mrs. Duff, Mr. Jander

200 (1-2). SURVEY OF DESIGN IN MUSIC (2 units)

A survey of materials and methods of composition from the earliest times to the present. Prerequisite, 101. Three periods.

Mr. Jander

204 (3). COUNTERPOINT I (1 unit)

Two-part writing. Analysis. Prerequisite, 101.

Mr. Crawford

205 (2). COUNTERPOINT II (1 unit)

Three-part writing. Analysis. Prerequisite, 204.

Mr. Lamb

209 (1). THE CLASSICAL PERIOD (1 unit)

Studies in the music of Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven. Prerequisite, 101 or 103. Not to be counted toward a major.

Mr. Jander

210 (2).^{*} THE ROMANTIC PERIOD (1 unit)

Analysis of representative compositions of the 19th century. Prerequisite, 103, 200, or 209. Not to be counted toward a major. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

214 (2).^{*} THE TWENTIETH CENTURY (1 unit)

An introduction to contemporary music. Prerequisite, same as for 210. Not to be counted toward a major. Mr. Jander

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

303 (1). THE MIDDLE AGES AND THE RENAISSANCE (1 unit)

Topics in music before 1600. Prerequisite, 200. Mr. Jander

307 (2). THE OPERA (1 unit)

A study of operatic forms, styles, and traditions from the time of Mozart to the present. Open to juniors and seniors who have taken 2 units of grade II. Mr. Herrmann

312 (1-2). HARMONY (2 units)

The figured bass. Harmonization of melodies. Analysis. Prerequisite, 205 or, by permission, 204. Three periods. Mr. Crawford

316 (1-2). INTRODUCTION TO COMPOSITION (2 units)

Advanced studies in theory. The principles of instrumentation. Composition for small ensembles. Prerequisite, 312. Mr. Lamb

320 (3). SEMINAR. STUDIES IN MUSIC SINCE 1900 (1 unit)

Subject for 1967-68: Selected works of Igor Stravinsky. Prerequisite, 200 and 312. Mr. Lamb

321 (1). SEMINAR. THE AGE OF BACH AND HANDEL (1 unit)

Subject for 1967-68: Aspects of the style of Handel. Open to students who have taken 200 and who have taken or are taking 312. Mr. Lamb

322 (2). SEMINAR. CLASSICISM AND TRANSITION (1 unit)

Subject for 1967-68: The chamber music of Beethoven. Prerequisite, same as for 321. Mr. Crawford

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of majors in the senior year.

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Directed study in theory, orchestration, composition, or the history of music. Open to seniors by permission.

PERFORMING MUSIC (INSTRUMENTAL AND VOCAL LESSONS)

Instruction is provided in piano, organ, violin, violoncello, and voice, and arrangements may be made for private instruction in other instruments. Although no academic credit is given for such study, the department strongly recommends it as a complement to the course work in music. Advanced students of string instruments or piano are eligible without additional charge for group instruction in the performance of chamber music.

Students may take performing music provided they take or have already taken a college course in the theory of music. Performing music is an elective, and students wishing to take it should notify the department in accordance with the procedure required for the election of an academic course.

Instruction in performing music is available to graduates of Wellesley College and to residents of the Town of Wellesley by special arrangement.

Performing music study is normally undertaken on a yearly basis, although with the permission of the chairman of the department it may be elected for a single term only. Students whose work proves unsatisfactory may be required to discontinue their lessons.

The College subscribes for eight seats in the Saturday evening series of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Tickets for these concerts are available at cost and students taking music courses are given preference in the use of them.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

Students wishing to major in music should consult with the chairman of the department, who will advise them in planning their work both in the major and in such related fields as European history, literature, and art. Those who propose after graduation to continue into musicology should note that a reading knowledge of both French and German is essential for work in that field, and that in addition a certain proficiency in Italian and in Latin is highly desirable.

 Students who elect performing music instruction are charged at the rate of $150 for a half-hour lesson per week throughout the year. Use of a practice studio for one period daily is $20 per year. Daily organ practice is $30. Performing music fees are payable in advance and are not subject to return or reduction except upon recommendation of both the Dean of Students and the Chairman of the Department of Music.

PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSORS ONDERDONK, HARING (Chairman); ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS STADLER, SANTAS; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS PUTNAM, CONGLETON; INSTRUCTOR: MR. HARDWIG.

101 (1) (2) (3). PLATO (1 unit)

A study of Plato's philosophical system with emphasis on his ethics and metaphysics. Some comparison with at least one later thinker, e.g., Aristotle, Hume, Dewey, Sartre. Open to all undergraduates. The Staff

103 (1) (2) (3). PHILOSOPHICAL ANALYSIS (1 unit)

An introduction to recent conceptions of philosophical inquiry through a study of theories concerning such topics as the nature of inference and the role of thought in human action. Comparison of contemporary analytical procedures with traditional approaches. Open to all undergraduates. The Staff

201 (2). ARISTOTLE (1 unit)

A study of Aristotle's treatises, their historical roots in Plato and the Pre-Socratics, their relevance to modern thought. Prerequisite, 101, or permission of the instructor. Mrs. Haring

203 (1) (3). PHILOSOPHY OF ART (1 unit)

An examination of some major theories of art and art criticism. Emphasis on the clarification of such key concepts as style, meaning, and truth, and on the nature of judgments and arguments about artistic beauty and excellence. Open to freshmen and sophomores who have taken one course in philosophy, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. Mrs. Haring (1), Mrs. Stadler (1), (3)

204 (1). PHILOSOPHY OF LANGUAGE (1 unit)

An investigation of some philosophical questions about language, such as the relation between language and thought and the nature of meaning. Open to sophomores who have taken one course in philosophy, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. Miss Congleton

206 (2). MORAL PHILOSOPHY (1 unit)

A systematic investigation of moral reasoning and moral judgments. Readings from traditional and contemporary sources. Prerequisite, same as for 204. Mrs. Putnam

207 (1). STUDIES IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN PHILOSOPHY I (1 unit)

Examination of the philosophies of Descartes, Spinoza, and Locke, designed to give the student a knowledge of the chief 17th century philosophical systems and to provide some background for the understanding of related movements in literature and in the natural and social sciences. Prerequisite, same as for 203. The Staff

208 (2). STUDIES IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN PHILOSOPHY II (1 unit)

Examination of the philosophies of Hume, Kant, and Hegel, designed to give the student an acquaintance with British Empiricism and the rise of German Idealism and to provide background for the study of related movements in other fields. Prerequisite, 207, or by permission. The Staff

209 (3). NINETEENTH CENTURY PHILOSOPHY (1 unit)

A study of major themes in 19th century philosophy with emphasis on Hegel and the reaction to Hegelianism as seen, e.g., in the works of Kierkegaard and Nietzsche. Prerequisite, 208, or permission of the instructor. Mrs. Stadler

211 (2). PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION (1 unit)

An examination of basic problems regarding the nature of religion, the grounds of religious belief, and the character of ritual, with attention to both traditional and contemporary positions. Open to sophomores who have taken one course in philosophy, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. Miss Congleton

216 (1). LOGIC (1 unit)

An introduction to the methods of symbolic logic and their application to arguments in ordinary English. Discussion of validity, implication, consistency, proof, and of such topics as the thesis of extensionality and the nature of mathematical truth. Open to sophomores who have taken one course in philosophy or mathematics, and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. Mrs. Putnam

217 (2).^{*} PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE (1 unit)

An examination of the fundamental relations between science and philosophy, showing how some basic philosophical issues have their origins and justification in theories about the natural world. Examples from the social and physical sciences. Prerequisite, same as for 203. Miss Goodfield

218 (1-2). HISTORY OF SCIENCE (2 units)

For description and prerequisite, see Extradepartmental 218. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

306 (2).° ADVANCED LOGIC (1 unit)

Discussion of the characteristics of deductive systems, e.g., consistency and completeness; development of a system of axiomatic abstract set theory; investigation of philosophical problems such as those presented by Gödel's theorem and by the axiom of choice. Prerequisite, 216. (Not offered in 1967-68.)
Mrs. Putnam

311 (1). KANT (1 unit)

Intensive studies in the philosophy of Kant with some consideration of his position in the history of philosophy. Prerequisite, 207 and 208, or permission of the instructor.
Mrs. Stadler, Mr. Hardwig

312(2).° CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHY: PHENOMENOLOGY AND EXISTENTIALISM (1 unit)

A study of central themes in contemporary European philosophy. Prerequisite, 3 units in philosophy including 207 and 208, or 208 and 209, or permission of the instructor. (Not offered in 1967-68.)

313 (2).° CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHY (1 unit)

Intensive study of one major philosophical position through a detailed examination of one person or school, such as Pragmatism, Positivism, the philosophy of Whitehead. Topic for 1967-68: Logical Empiricism and its contribution to the subsequent philosophy of space and time. Prerequisite, 3 units in philosophy including 207 and 208, or permission of the instructor.
Mrs. Putnam

324 (2). SEMINAR (1 unit)

Intensive study of selected problems of current philosophical concern. Topic for 1967-68: Minds and persons. Prerequisite, same as for 313.
Mrs. Stadler

325 (3). SEMINAR (1 unit)

Intensive study of selected problems of philosophical concern. Topic for 1967-68: Problems about being and knowledge as treated in Plato's later dialogues. Prerequisite, same as for 313.
Mr. Santas

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)

Required of majors in the senior year.

° Offered in alternate years.

- 350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)
Open to juniors and seniors by permission.
- 365 (1) (2). HONORS STUDY (1 or 2 units)
Open to honors candidates in the department.
- 370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)
Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

To fulfill the college requirement in philosophy or history, students may elect any course except 216, 218, or 306.

Course 218 counts as related work but not as part of the major.

A major in philosophy must include 101, 201, 207, 208, either 103 or 216, 311, and one other grade III course.

A knowledge of Greek, French, or German is desirable for all majors. Students planning graduate work are urged to acquire a reading knowledge of two of these languages.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SPEARS^a; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS HOWARD (Acting Director), COCHRAN, VAUGHN; INSTRUCTORS: MISS NEAL, MISS CARSON, MISS EELES, MRS. NOGEOLO, MISS DANIELSON, MRS. SCHAADT, MRS. STALEY.

Courses are conducted according to skill levels which are indicated as follows: E—elementary, I—intermediate, and A—advanced.

In the lists of activities superior figures indicate special requirements:

Physical Education Activities

Term I-A (6 weeks)—Archery (E-I), canoeing¹ (E-I-A), crew¹ (E-I), diving (E), field hockey (I-A), figure control, golf (E-I-A), horseback riding², independent physical education⁴, modern dance (E-I-A), swimming (E-I), synchronized swimming (technique and composition), tennis (E-I-A), volleyball.

Term I-B (6 weeks)—Badminton (E-I-A), basketball, diving (E-I), fencing (E), figure control, folk dance (basic, special area), fundamentals of movement, gymnastics (E-I), horseback riding², independent physical education⁴, modern dance (E-I-A), modern jazz dance, squash (E-I), swimming (E-I-A-fitness activities), synchronized swimming (technique and composition), volleyball.

Term I (12 weeks)—Senior Life Saving³, Water Safety Instructors³.

Term II-A (6 weeks)—Badminton (E-I-A), basketball, diving (E-I), fencing (E-I), figure control, folk dance (basic, special area), fundamentals of movement, independent physical education⁴, modern dance (E-I-A-choreography), modern jazz dance, skiing (E-I-A), squash (E-I-A), swimming (E-I-A-fitness activities), synchronized swimming (technique and composition), volleyball.

Term II-B (6 weeks)—Badminton (E-I-A), basketball, diving (E-I), fencing (E-I-A), figure control, folk dance (basic, special area), fundamentals of movement, gymnastics (E-I-A), independent physical education⁴, modern dance (E-I, composition, pre-classic dance forms), skiing and ski conditioning (E-I-A), squash (E-I-A), swimming (E-I-A-fitness activities), synchronized swimming (technique and composition), volleyball.

Term II (12 weeks)—Recreation leadership, Senior Life Saving³, Water Safety Instructors³.

Term III (6-weeks)—Archery (E-I), canoeing¹ (E-I-A, instructor), crew¹, (E-I), diving (E-I), figure control, golf (E-I-A), horseback riding², independent physical education⁴, lacrosse, modern dance (E-A, composition), swimming (E-I-fitness activities-watermanship and safety skills), synchronized swimming (technique and composition), tennis (E-I-A, instructor), volleyball, Water Safety Instructor refresher³.

121 (1-2-3). PHYSICAL EDUCATION ACTIVITIES

Fundamentals of Movement: the study of body alignment, conscious relaxation and basic movement patterns (Term I-B, or Term II-A or II-B); choice of activities in other terms or seasons. Required of freshmen. Two periods a week. The Staff

122 (1-2-3). PHYSICAL EDUCATION ACTIVITIES

Choice of seasonal or term activities. Required of sophomores. Two periods a week. The Staff

131 and 132 (1-2-3). MODIFIED PHYSICAL EDUCATION ACTIVITIES

Required of freshmen (131) and sophomores (132) whose medical or orthopedic condition indicates the need for modified activities and individually planned programs. Upon recommendation of the College Physician. May be substituted for 121 or 122. Miss Carson

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

The instructional program is divided into five seasons, two each in Terms I and II, and one in Term III. While most activities are offered on a seasonal basis, some are offered for two seasons during Terms I and II. To fulfill the requirement in physical education a student must complete the Fundamentals of Movement course and nine seasons of activity. Unless exempted, freshmen are required to elect in Term I-B or in Term II-A or II-B the Fundamentals of Movement course. An exemption examination is offered in the first term. If an exemption is granted, the student will fulfill her physical education requirement by electing five seasons in the freshman year and four in the sophomore year.

A student's choice of an activity is subject to the approval of the department and the College Health Service.

Special sections in physical education are arranged for upperclassmen in the following activities and in the appropriate season: fencing, figure control, modern dance, skiing, squash, and tennis. A student who wishes to elect an upperclass section in physical education should consult the department Registrar.

With the permission of the department, students and faculty may elect any of the activities offered.

PHYSICS

PROFESSORS GUERNSEY (Chairman), FLEMING; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS BROWN, ZIMMERMANN.

Unless otherwise noted all courses meet for two periods of lecture and discussion weekly in Terms I and II, and for four periods weekly in Term III; all grade I and grade II courses have one three-hour laboratory appointment weekly in Terms I and II and two each week in Term III.

100 (1). BASIC CONCEPTS IN PHYSICS (1 unit)

Forces, fields, conservation laws, waves, structure of matter. Open to students who are not eligible for 103 or 105. Two periods weekly with a third period every other week. Credit given only after the completion of a sequential course in a physical science: Astronomy 103, Chemistry 103 or 106 or 200, Geology 102, or Physics 104 or 106. Miss Fleming

103 (1). FUNDAMENTAL PHYSICS (1 unit)

Same topics as 100. Open to students who offer physics for admission, and who are not eligible for 105. Two periods weekly, with a third period every other week. Credit given only after the completion of a sequential course in a physical science: Astronomy 103, Chemistry 103 or 106 or 200, Geology 102, or Physics 104 or 106. Mr. Zimmermann

104 (2). ELEMENTARY PHYSICS (1 unit)

Introduction to electric circuits, geometric optics, and wave phenomena. Open to students who are not eligible for 106. Two periods weekly with a third period every other week. Prerequisite, 100 or 103.

Miss Brown

105 (1). MECHANICS (1 unit)

Elementary mechanics with emphasis on rotational motion; wave motion; introduction to atomic structure. Open to students who offer physics for admission and who have taken or are taking Mathematics [106]† or 109. Two periods weekly with a third period every other week.

Mrs. Guernsey

106 (2). INTERMEDIATE PHYSICS (1 unit)

Further development of selected topics in physics. Emphasis on wave phenomena, light, and modern physics. Open to students who have taken 100 or 103 and who have taken or are taking Mathematics [106]† or 109. Two periods weekly, with a third period every other week.

Miss Fleming

200 (3). MODERN PHYSICS (1 unit)

Basic principles of relativity and quantum theory, and of atomic and nuclear structure. Prerequisite, [102]†, 104, 105, or 106. Miss Fleming

201 (2). ELECTRICITY (1 unit)

Fundamental laws of electric and magnetic fields; electric circuits; electric and magnetic properties of matter. Prerequisite, [102]†, 104, 105, or 106, and Mathematics [106] or 109. Mrs. Guernsey

202 (1). OPTICS (1 unit)

Wave theory as applied to optical phenomena. Interference, diffraction, birefringence, polarization, dispersion. Theory and use of optical instruments. Prerequisite, same as for 201. Miss Brown

206 (3).^{*} ELECTRONICS (1 unit)

Fundamental principles of electron tubes and transistors; application to power supplies, amplifiers, oscillators, modulators. Introduction to non-linear electronic circuits. Prerequisite, 201. Mrs. Guernsey

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

216 (2). APPLICATIONS OF MATHEMATICS IN THE PHYSICAL SCIENCES I. (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Extradepartmental 216.

217 (3). APPLICATIONS OF MATHEMATICS IN THE PHYSICAL SCIENCES II. (1 unit)

For description and prerequisite, see Extradepartmental 217.

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

301 (2). QUANTUM MECHANICS (1 unit)

Interpretative postulates of quantum mechanics; solutions to the Schroedinger equation; operator theory; perturbation theory; scattering; matrices. Prerequisite, 217, or Mathematics 201 or 204, and in addition one term of grade II physics or permission of the instructor. Physics 306 is recommended. Miss Brown

303 (3).^{*} NUCLEAR PHYSICS (1 unit)

Static properties of atomic nuclei. Properties of charged particles, neutrons, and gamma rays; their interactions with matter. Natural and artificial radioactivity. Nuclear reactions. Prerequisite, 301. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mrs. Guernsey

304 (2). ELECTROMAGNETIC THEORY (1 unit)

Maxwell's equations; electromagnetic waves and radiation; physical optics. Prerequisite, 201 and 306. Mr. Zimmermann

305 (3). THERMODYNAMICS (1 unit)

The laws of thermodynamics; kinetic theory of gases; statistical mechanics. Prerequisite [102]†, 104, 105, or 106, and 217 or Mathematics 201 or 204. Miss Brown

306 (1). ADVANCED MECHANICS (1 unit)

A vector analytical presentation of Newtonian mechanics; introduction to Lagrangian and Hamiltonian mechanics. Prerequisite, same as for 305. Mr. Zimmermann

309 (2). ADVANCED EXPERIMENTAL PHYSICS (1 unit)

Fundamental experiments selected from different areas of physics. Prerequisite, 200 and 201, or permission of the instructor. Two laboratory appointments per week. Miss Brown

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

† Numbers in brackets refer to courses listed only in earlier catalogues.

340 (3). PREPARATION FOR THE SENIOR MAJOR EXAMINATION (1 unit)
Required of majors in the senior year.

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)
Open by permission to juniors and seniors.

370 (1-2). HONORS RESEARCH (2 units)
Required of all honors candidates in the department.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

A major in physics should ordinarily include 200, 201, 301, 304, 305, and 306. Course 217 or Mathematics 201 or 204, and 2 units of college chemistry or the equivalent are required for a major in physics.

Attention is also called to courses in astronomy as appropriate for related work. A reading knowledge of two of the following languages is desirable: French, German, Russian.

Premedical students are referred to the requirements given on p. 37.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PROFESSORS STRATTON, EVANS (Chairman); ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR GREEN^a; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS PHIBBS, SCHECHTER; INSTRUCTORS: MR. STETTNER, MR. NAWAWI, MRS. HEER, MR. ROSENBAUM.

101 (1) (2) (3). INTRODUCTION TO POLITICAL ANALYSIS (1 unit)

Questions basic to political analysis including: What political beliefs are held by participants in a political system? What is the nature of the system's policy-making processes? How do political leaders achieve power? What factors contribute to political stability and change? Course intended to help students interpret contemporary political developments and to provide analytical tools for advanced work. Illustrations drawn from various political systems, including Great Britain, the Soviet Union, and the United States. Open to all undergraduates. The Staff

200 (1) (2) (3). COMPARATIVE POLITICS OF THE DEVELOPING AREAS (1 unit)

Study of selected aspects of African, Asian, and Latin American political systems, with emphasis upon use and evaluation of analytical concepts in recent literature; political change, national integration, and legitimization among problems considered. Prerequisite, 101 or 2 units in economics, history, psychology, or sociology.

Mr. Rosenbaum (1) (2), Mr. Nawawi (3)

^a Absent on leave.

205 (1). COMPARATIVE GOVERNMENT: WESTERN EUROPE (1 unit)

Analysis of European political regimes including West Germany, Italy, France, and the United Kingdom with reference to constitutional traditions, party systems, interest groups, parliaments, political executives, and bureaucracies. Examination of key problems facing representative government. Prerequisite, same as for 200. Mr. Stettner

210 (1) (2). AMERICAN PARTIES AND INTEREST GROUPS (1 unit)

Analysis of the role of extragovernmental political organizations in the American political process. Organization, operation, and evaluation of political parties and interest groups; recruitment of leaders, elections and behavior of the electorate, influences on public policy formation. Prerequisite, same as for 200. Mr. Schechter

211 (3). THE PRESIDENTIAL SYSTEM IN THE UNITED STATES (1 unit)

Study of the President and other members of the presidency, political and career executives in the bureaucracy, and members of Congress and their staffs; formal and informal organization; emphasis upon relationships across organizational lines and influences upon behavior. Prerequisite, same as for 200. Mr. Stratton

220 (1-2). INTERNATIONAL POLITICS (2 units)

Study of contemporary world politics with special attention to international security and efforts to achieve cooperation; the United Nations and regional arrangements; tension areas and current disputes; foreign policies of major powers. Prerequisite, same as for 200. Not open to students who have taken or are taking 221. Recommended for students planning further work in the international field in political science. Mrs. Heer

221 (1) (3). PROBLEMS OF INTERNATIONAL POLITICS (1 unit)

Study of the international community and the forces which influence the conduct of its members; the nature and pursuit of foreign policy, international organization, and the attempts to achieve security in a divided world. Prerequisite, same as for 200. Not open to students who have taken or are taking 220. Not recommended for students planning further work in the international field in political science. Mr. Phibbs

235 (3). SYSTEMATIC POLITICAL THEORY (1 unit)

Exploration of key concepts of political theory, including power, authority, justice, and freedom. Readings from both traditional and contemporary sources. Prerequisite, 101 or 2 units in economics, history, philosophy, psychology, or sociology. Mr. Stettner

290 (3). INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 unit)

Required of all students in the area of concentration, ordinarily in Term III of the junior year.

306 (1). COMPARATIVE GOVERNMENT: SOUTH AND EAST ASIA (1 unit)

The political process in India, Japan, and China; accommodation of political traditions to modern ideas in the development and functioning of political systems; political institutions; leadership and shifting foci of power; problems in domestic and foreign policy-making. Open to students who have taken 200 or History 225 and 227; by permission to other qualified students.

Miss Evans

307 (2). COMPARATIVE GOVERNMENT: LATIN AMERICA (1 unit)

Study of politics and government in selected Latin American states including Argentina, Brazil, Chile, and Mexico, treating dynamics of power, constitutionalism, crisis government, factors underlying policy formation. Open to students who have taken 200, and to juniors and seniors who have taken a grade II course in political science or History 214; by permission to qualified students majoring in Spanish.

Mr. Rosenbaum

308 (2) (3). COMPARATIVE GOVERNMENT: THE SOVIET UNION AND EASTERN EUROPE (1 unit)

Study of politics and government in the Soviet Union and East European satellites: the interrelationship of ideology and power, leadership, political institutions, policy formation. Open to juniors and seniors who have taken a grade II course in political science or History 209 or 313; by permission to juniors and seniors emphasizing Russian language and history.

Mrs. Heer

310 (2). POLICY-MAKING IN THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT (1 unit)

Analysis of the policy-making process based on simulation of decision-making in executive, legislative, judicial, and/or administrative units, primarily in the Federal Government. Four or five nationally important questions considered, with all class members playing roles as advocates, witnesses, decision-makers, or analysts; evaluation of role-playing and extent to which relevant considerations are taken into account in reaching decisions. Open to students who have taken 210 and 211; by permission to qualified juniors and seniors who have had only one of these courses.

Mr. Schechter and Mr. Stratton

321 (2). FOREIGN POLICY ANALYSIS (1 unit)

Formation, interrelation, and interaction of foreign policies of major powers; strategies of bargaining, negotiation, issue-control, policy articu-

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

A student majoring in political science is required to take 101 and to elect courses above the grade I level in four of the following fields: American government, comparative government, international politics, political theory, and public law. The political science major is expected to prepare three fields for her Senior Major Examination.

One unit of grade III work may be counted to fulfill college requirements only in combination with another unit of political science.

Students planning graduate work should keep in mind that most graduate schools require demonstrated reading knowledge of two languages for the Ph.D. degree, and that some knowledge of mathematics and/or statistics is becoming increasingly useful in certain fields. Although comparative government courses listed above require command only of English, knowledge of relevant foreign languages is useful.

DIRECTIONS FOR ELECTION

Courses 311, 312, 315, 316 may be elected to fulfill the college literature requirement.

The College does not offer a major in Russian literature, but a student wishing to focus her attention on Russia may take a minimum major in history and count literature courses in the Department of Russian as part of her field of concentration. In the case of such a student, approximately one third of the Senior Major Examination will be devoted to Russian literature. Interested students should arrange their programs with the chairmen of the Departments of Russian and of History.

Students who wish to do graduate work in Russian are advised to begin or to pursue the study of at least one other modern language.

A proficiency in at least one classical language is highly advisable for those who are planning to do graduate work in Slavic languages and literatures.

Reading of modern Chinese texts. Prerequisite, 200. Mrs. Lin

350 (1) (2). RESEARCH OR INDIVIDUAL STUDY (1 or 2 units)

Open by permission to qualified students.

CLASSICAL ARCHAEOLOGY

Director: MRS. VERMEULE

An interdepartmental major in classical archaeology gives opportunity for a study of classical civilization through its art, literature, and history with emphasis on either the Greek or Roman period.

The field of concentration should normally include ancient history (2 units), art (4 or 5 units), Greek or Latin language and literature (6 or 7 units); independent study of an archaeological topic, preferably correlating work in art and literature or history (1 or 2 units). In addition to the work elected in either Greek or Latin the candidate must give evidence of a working knowledge of the second language. Basic reading knowledge of German or French is recommended.

MOLECULAR BIOLOGY

Director: MR. WANG

The Departments of Biological Sciences and Chemistry offer an inter-departmental major in molecular biology which gives opportunity for advanced study of the chemistry of biological systems.

In addition to one or two units of biochemistry (321, 322), the area of concentration will include 5 units of chemistry (103 or 106, 107, 201, 202, 301), 5 units of biology including in general 2 units of grade III, Physics 100, 103, or 105, and Mathematics 109 or the equivalent. Students who exempt any units of grade I may substitute further units in biology, chemistry, mathematics, or physics.

THEATRE STUDIES

Director: MR. BARSTOW

Although the College does not offer a major, students may elect as many as 6 units in theatre studies.

A student who wishes to focus her attention on the drama may take a minimum major in English and count courses in theatre studies in her field of concentration. Such students will be given the opportunity in the Senior Major Examination of using material from these related courses. Interested students should arrange their programs with the chairman of the Department of English and the director of Theatre Studies. In general, the area of concentration should include in addition to courses in English and theatre studies, at least one related course in another department. Attention is called to foreign language courses emphasizing dramatic literature, to courses in the history of art and the philosophy of art.

203 (3).^{*} PLAYS, PRODUCTION, AND PERFORMANCE (1 unit)

Representative plays of major eras in the history of the theatre considered in terms of both the original conditions of performance and present-day stagecraft; particular attention to direction, design, and acting as these complete the creation of the dramatist. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and to freshmen by permission. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mr. Barstow

207 (1).^{*} EARLY MODERN THEATRE (1 unit)

Ibsen, Strindberg, and Chekhov, and their forerunners and immediate successors; particular attention paid to theatrical conditions, producers, designers, and actors associated with stage production of the plays studied. Open to sophomores who have taken 203, or by permission; and to juniors and seniors without prerequisite. Mr. Barstow

208 (2).^{*} CONTEMPORARY THEATRE (1 unit)

Mid-20th century dramatists and production styles; plays, producers, designers, and actors significant in the development of contemporary theatre. Prerequisite, same as for 207. Mr. Barstow

210 (1-2).^{*} HISTORY OF THE THEATRE (FIFTH CENTURY B.C. TO THE PRESENT) (2 units)

Study of theatre structures, crafts, and practices, with emphasis on acting and production styles as these relate to major developments in dramatic literature. Prerequisite, same as for 207. By permission, either term may be elected independently. (Not offered in 1967-68.) Mr. Barstow

215 (3).^{*} SHAKESPEARE IN THE THEATRE (1 unit)

Study of production of Shakespeare's plays in the theatre; particular attention to Elizabethan stagecraft and to contemporary production styles; emphasis on acting and directing. Reports, and scenes performed for class criticism. Prerequisite, 203 and English 215 or 309, or by permission. Mr. Barstow

^{*} Offered in alternate years.

ADMISSION

Students who wish to apply for admission to Wellesley College as undergraduates should write to the Director of Admission. She is always glad to answer inquiries from students, their parents, or their schools about admission requirements and the procedures for applying.

The Board of Admission consists of eight representatives of the faculty and officers and is chaired by the Director of Admission; it acts with final authority in determining which candidates will be admitted. Among the many applicants of good intellectual ability and character, it seeks each year to admit a class whose members are eager to learn and who together provide a stimulating diversity of backgrounds and special interests.

Each candidate is required to have a personal interview either at the College or in her home or school region. Upon request from the candidate, the Director of Admission will forward the name and address of the alumna interviewer in her area.

It should be noted that many types of illness and disability are not insurmountable handicaps at Wellesley College, but the College cannot encourage the entrance of students who find walking very difficult, nor can it supply special diets except during temporary illnesses.

ADMISSION OF FRESHMEN

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Entering students normally have completed four years of college preparatory studies in secondary school. Good preparation for work at Wellesley College includes four years of English, a minimum of three years of mathematics (four years are recommended for students planning to concentrate in mathematics, pre-medicine, or physical science), one or more courses in a laboratory science and in history, and courses in either Latin or Greek and in a modern foreign language. If a student is not able to study one language for at least three years and another for at least two years, she is advised to study one language, ancient or modern, for four years.

The Board of Admission is glad to consider applications from able, serious students whose schools do not offer all the courses recommended above.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Application forms may be secured from the Director of Admission. A fee of $15.00 must accompany the formal application. This fee is not refunded if a candidate withdraws her application or is not admitted.

ADMISSION PLANS

1. Early Decision:

This plan is intended for the student with a very good record who decides early that Wellesley is the college which she wishes to attend and who agrees to file no other college application until after receiving the decision of the Board of Admission on her single application. She must have taken the appropriate College Board examinations in her junior year in school and must apply and complete a form entitled "Request for Early Decision" by October 1 of her last year in school. All supporting credentials and interview must be completed by November 1. A letter informing her of the Board's decision will be mailed by December 1.

2. April Decision:

A candidate who uses the regular plan of admission must file an application by January 1 of her last year in school. All supporting credentials and interview must be completed by February 1. A letter informing her of the Board's decision will be mailed in April.

N.B. Early Admission:

A very few unusually mature students whose achievement in secondary school is superior are considered for admission after only three years of high school. These candidates are required to have an interview at the College. In all other respects they follow the regular procedures for entrance.

ENTRANCE PROCEDURES

The Scholastic Aptitude Test and three Achievement Tests of the College Entrance Examination Board are required of all applicants for admission. Among the Achievement Tests, the English Composition Test is required and two other tests chosen from two of the following fields: 1) foreign languages 2) social studies 3) either mathematics or science.

Each applicant is responsible for arranging to take the tests and for requesting the College Entrance Examination Board to send to Wellesley College the results of all tests taken. The Board sends its publications and the necessary registration forms to apply for the tests to all American secondary schools. The applicant may obtain the registration form at her school, or may obtain it by writing directly to the College Entrance Examination Board at Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey 08540; or, if she lives in a western state, western Canada, Australia, Mexico, or the Pacific Islands, at Box 1025, Berkeley, California 94701.

TIMING OF THE EXAMINATIONS

1. Early Decision Plan:

A candidate for admission under the Early Decision Plan should take the Scholastic Aptitude Test in March or May of her junior year and the Achievement Tests in May of her junior year or in the July following her junior year.

2. April Decision:

The Scholastic Aptitude Test should be taken in December or January of the senior year. The Achievement Tests may be divided between May of the junior year and December or January of the senior year. Tests taken in March of the senior year are not suitable since the results will be received too late to be considered for an April decision.

Note: Applications and fees should reach the College Board Office approximately seven to eight weeks before the dates of the tests specified below.

Dates of Tests:

December 2, 1967
January 13, 1968
March 2, 1968
May 4, 1968
July 13, 1968

ADVANCED PLACEMENT AND CREDIT

Applicants for admission who are studying under the Advanced Placement Program of the College Board or who are working beyond the usual secondary school level independently or in some other program will wish to read carefully pages 30-31 of this catalogue. It gives information about placement in advanced courses in the freshman year, exemption from required studies, and credits toward the bachelor's degree which may be earned prior to admission. An entering freshman who is interested in advanced placement or exemption should explain this in writing to her class dean during the summer. If she is considering acceleration and early graduation, she should consult her dean during the first term of her freshman year.

STUDENTS FROM ABROAD

American citizens residing abroad and foreign citizens residing in the United States who wish to apply to Wellesley College should follow the procedures and time-schedules described above.

A student interested in attending Wellesley College who is both a citizen and a resident of a foreign country should apply well before January 1 of the year in which she plans to enter college and should address all inquiries concerning admission and financial aid to the Associate Dean for Foreign Students. She is encouraged to obtain the preliminary application forms supplied by the Institute of International Education in her own country or may write directly to the Associate Dean for Foreign Students, Wellsley College, giving her reasons for wishing to attend and a detailed statement of her previous educational experience. She should make arrangements to take the College Board Examinations no later than January of the year of proposed admission. These examinations should include the Scholastic Aptitude Test, the Writing Sample, an Achievement Test in English Composition, and another subject other than the student's native language.

ADMISSION OF TRANSFER STUDENTS

Wellesley College accepts a limited number of sophomore and junior transfer students who offer excellent academic records and strong recommendations from their dean and instructors. A student wishing to apply for admission with advanced standing should make application before February 1 on forms which may be obtained from the Director of Admission. A non-refundable application fee of $15 should be sent with the completed application form.

Credit for courses completed at another college is tentatively granted early in the first year of residence at Wellesley. The final determination of credit which depends upon the quality of the student's work at Wellesley College is not made until the end of her first year here. It should be noted that financial aid funds are not budgeted for transfer students in their first year at Wellesley.

READMISSION

A student who has withdrawn from college and wishes to return should apply to the Office of the Deans for the appropriate forms. Readmission will be considered in the light of the reasons for withdrawal and reapplication, and of the space currently available. A non-refundable fee of $15.00 must accompany the reapplication form.

ADMISSION OF GRADUATE STUDENTS

Wellesley College accepts a limited number of candidates for the degree of Master of Arts. A summary of requirements for the master's degree appears on page 33. Interested students should write to the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Instruction.

FINANCIAL AID

Wellesley College's program of financial aid for students is intended to open educational opportunity at the College to serious and worthy students without regard to their financial circumstances and to have the college community enriched by a student body representative of various economic and geographic groups. Currently about $500,000 from college sources and another $100,000 from the Wellesley Students' Aid Society are awarded annually in the form of gifts, loans, and work guarantees. This makes possible assisting approximately one hundred students in each class to meet the cost of the inclusive fee. The Students' Aid Society also offers personal assistance through loans of books and other items, gifts of clothing, and loans of small amounts of money for incidental expenses and special emergencies.

Financial aid is given only to students who require assistance in order to attend. Awards vary in size according to individual need and may amount to the full fee. Although they are given only for one year at a time, the College expects to renew them as needed throughout the four years for all holders whose records as students and as citizens of the college community are considered satisfactory by the Wellesley College Committee on Scholarships. Awards to freshmen are normally a combination of gift and interest-free loan. Awards to upperclassmen ordinarily also include a guarantee of term-time work on the campus.

Ten special scholarships are available for residents of the Town of Wellesley who meet the standards of admission and thereafter maintain diploma grade standing.

APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL AID

Each registered applicant for admission who desires financial aid must secure two forms not earlier than her last year in school and must file them in the places indicated below by October 15 of her senior year for Early Decision applicants, by January 15 for April Decision applicants.

1. Wellesley College Application for Financial Aid. This form should be requested of and returned to the Financial Aid Officer, Wellesley College.

2. Parents' Confidential Statement. This form is available in the secondary schools, or may be obtained by writing to the College Scholarship Service, Box 176, Princeton, New Jersey 08540; Box 881, Evanston, Illinois 60204, or Box 1025, Berkeley, California 94701. A copy can also be provided by the Financial Aid Officer if specifically requested by an applicant. The Parents' Confidential Statement should be filed with the College Scholarship Service. The Service will then forward a copy for confidential use to the college or colleges indicated on the form.

Candidates for admission who have sufficient funds for the first year but who foresee a need for assistance for the later years should inform the Financial Aid Officer by January 15 of their senior year in school. The College endeavors to reserve funds to meet the needs of qualified students who do not require aid on entrance but who anticipate financial problems during the later college years.

Applications for aid from students in college should be filed with the Financial Aid Officer on forms obtained at the College in accordance with instructions posted annually.

Wellesley College also administers low-interest-bearing loans made available under the National Defense Student Loan Program. Students with financial need who are not granted college awards by the College Committee on Scholarships may obtain application forms for National Defense Loans from the Financial Aid Officer.

GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS

Wellesley College administers several graduate fellowships for use in any institution, some of them open to alumnæ of any college, some of them limited to graduating seniors and alumnæ of Wellesley. Application forms for graduate fellowships may be secured from the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Fellowships, the President's Office. Applications and supporting credentials for the fellowships described below are due in the President's Office by February 20, except as noted.

FELLOWSHIPS FOR ALUMNAE OF WELLESLEY COLLEGE

The Mary Elvira Stevens Traveling Fellowship provides a stipend of $7000 a year without restriction as to field for an alumna of Wellesley College of at least twenty-five years of age to travel or study outside the United States. It will be assigned again in 1968-1969 for use beginning in 1969-1970. Applications are due by January 10, 1969.

Five other graduate fellowships providing stipends of $2500 are open only to alumnæ of Wellesley College: the Horton-Hallowell Fellowship preferably for a candidate for the Ph.D. degree or its equivalent, and the Fanny Bullock Workman Scholarship, both without restriction as to field; the Anne Louise Barrett Fellowship, preferably for study in the field of music; and, awarded in alternate years, the Vida Dutton Scudder Fellowship for study in the field of social science, political science, or literature, and the Edna V. Moffett Scholarship, preferably in the field of history, every third year. These are in addition to the Trustee Scholarships which are described on page 33.

Graduates of the College are eligible to compete for three fellowships of $2000 which are awarded annually by the American School of Classical Studies in Athens. Qualified graduates are exempt from any charge for tuition at the American School of Classical Studies in Athens or in Rome.

FELLOWSHIPS OR ASSISTANTSHIPS FOR ALUMNAE OF ANY COLLEGE

Several scholarships are available for candidates for the degree of Master of Arts at Wellesley College. Also, assistantships, which provide stipends of $2000, are available in certain science departments for candidates for the master's degree. Information may be obtained from the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction.

Three graduate fellowships for study at the institution of the candidate's choice are administered by Wellesley College and are open to alumnae of any college including Wellesley College. They provide stipends for $2500. The Alice Freeman Palmer Fellowship is without restriction as to field; the M. A. Cartland Shackford Medical Scholarship is for the study of medicine with a view to general practice, not psychiatry; the Harriet A. Shaw Scholarship, awarded in alternate years, is preferably for the study of music.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS

REGISTRATION

Each student must register in her residence hall at the beginning of each college year. The time of registration is stated in the calendar on page 2.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

Entering students come into residence two days before most upperclassmen. During this period they meet their class dean, other officers of the College, and some upperclassmen who answer their questions and help them to become acquainted with the activities and traditions of the College. They visit the library, take appropriate placement tests, and have opportunity to consult their deans should changes in their programs of study seem advisable. Special events of various types are scheduled for entering students during their first week at Wellesley.

ADVISING OF STUDENTS

Class deans are members of the faculty who are relieved of some teaching duties in order to act as advisers of students. They are ready to discuss informally with individual members of their classes any academic or personal concern which the student may have or, if more specialized help is desired, to direct the student to the person at the College who is best qualified to encourage her particular interest or meet her special need. In addition, they cooperate with faculty committees, heads of house, doctors, and student leaders in efforts to establish sound general policies. Usually each class has one dean for the first two years and another dean for the last two years.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

Each student is given full responsibility for her attendance at classes and for the timely preparation of her work. In case of illness or other difficulty she should consult her dean for assistance in making special arrangements for her studies.

The student is expected to prepare all her work with integrity and to abide scrupulously by the regulations of the faculty concerning academic work. The College attaches major importance to this. A student who finds herself in doubt as to a proper method or course of action should consult her instructor or dean immediately.

At the end of each term the academic record of each student is reviewed, including her grades, evidence of serious interest in her work, and potential for further achievement. A student may be excluded from the College if she has given little evidence of interest or growth in her work or if it is below diploma grade standing. If the record, although not satisfactory, shows promise, the student is warned and efforts are made to help her improve it. A student who makes consistent effort rarely has to be excluded. Ordinarily no student may enter the senior year who is below diploma grade standing or has failed to complete the foreign language requirement.

RESIDENTIAL LIFE

RESIDENCE HALLS

Wellesley College maintains thirteen large residence halls, each of which has its own living rooms and dining room. Students in proportionate numbers from all four classes live in each hall. A Resident Head of House who is interested in the welfare of each student works with the students in her hall to create an environment which invites study and intellectual discussion as well as relaxation and entertainment of friends.

Rooms are assigned to entering students by the Director of Residence with a view to maintaining among the freshmen in each hall representative diversity in background and interests. Regulations for moving from one hall to another at the end of each year vary from time to time but are always based on general policies equally applicable to all students. Only juniors are assured in advance that if they wish they may continue in the same residence hall for the following year.

Rooms are equipped with essential furniture. Students are expected to furnish blankets and couch covers, and to furnish bed linen and towels or rent them from a supply company designated by the College. A list of permissible additions is sent to each entering student. It should be noted that the College accepts no responsibility for the safety of personal possessions of the student. She may leave her possessions at her own risk in her room or in designated storage areas. Valuable items should be left at home or should be insured.

The College reserves the right to inspect any room at any time and to dispose of articles remaining unclaimed after due notice or after a student has left college, either by withdrawal or graduation. Residence halls are closed during Christmas and spring vacations. During the spring vacation, one hall is kept open on a per diem basis if enough students wish to remain. A Resident Head is in charge of the vacation house.

RULES OF RESIDENCE

Residence in college halls is required of all undergraduate students except those who commute from their parents' homes near the College and the married juniors or seniors who have permission to commute from their own homes. Once admitted to the College, a student may expect continuing opportunity to live in the college residence halls so long as her academic progress is considered satisfactory and she upholds high standards of civic and personal morality as well as the specific rules of residence which are stated in the College Government Handbook. She is expected to keep her room clean and to contribute two to three hours a week to light housework which is scheduled by student Heads of Work. Resident freshmen have a limited number of overnight absences in Term I; other students, given parental permission, have no limitation on absences. In the junior and senior years, resident students may have cars.

Married students are not allowed in the freshman or sophomore classes. A student who plans to be married and wishes to continue her studies at the College may apply to the Dean of Students for permission to become a non-resident student, provided she will have lived in the College residence halls for at least two years prior to her marriage. Permission is given if the student has a satisfactory academic and civic record and her new home is to be within thirty miles of the College.

Ordinarily a married junior or senior may not live at the College, because the College believes that women should postpone marriage until they are ready and able to establish their own homes. In an exceptional case and if permission has been requested and received from the Dean of Students at least one month before the marriage, a married junior or senior may live at the College.

HEALTH SERVICES

The services of the college physicians, psychiatrists, and nurses are available to students without charge both in the clinic and in the twenty-nine bed hospital on the campus. When advisable, specialists in the Greater Boston area are within easy reach for consultation.

Each resident student is allowed annually six free days in the infirmary, only three of which may be taken at any one time, when prescribed by a college physician. Thereafter the charge is eighteen dollars per day. The expense of special service in the infirmary or of outside consultation or hospitalization must be met by the student. The College strongly recommends purchase of a group student health and accident insurance policy which protects the student over a twelve-month period whether or not in residence at the College. Details concerning this policy are sent to all parents.

Each new student is required to submit by June 1 of the year of entrance a detailed Health Examination Report on forms supplied by the college Health Service. Certifications of immunization against small pox and tetanus are required, as well as chest X-Ray and ophthalmologist's certificates. Immunizations against poliomyelitis, typhoid, and diphtheria are recommended. Failure to complete any portion of the requirements will necessitate a special examination on arrival, at the student's expense. The college physicians rely on these examinations to determine the physical needs of each student and to make proper recommendations to the Department of Physical Education. The Health Report also makes possible cooperation with home physicians in continuing necessary treatment.

Cooperation with the college physician is a requirement of residence. A student in residence must notify a college physician before consulting a physician outside of the College or before leaving the campus for reasons of health. If she needs medical attention when away from the campus, she should inform her class dean immediately upon her return and take to the infirmary a statement signed by the attending physician.

In case of serious illness parents are notified by telegram or telephone, but the College reserves the right to make decisions concerning operations and other health matters if parents cannot be reached at a time when decisions seem imperative.

WITHDRAWAL AND EXCLUSION

A student who plans to withdraw must inform her class dean. The Recorder will then provide a withdrawal blank for the student's parents or guardian to sign. The official date of withdrawal is the date on which the signed blank is returned to the Recorder. In the event of involuntary withdrawal the official date of withdrawal is the day on which the student leaves.

The College reserves the right to require the withdrawal at any time of a student whose academic work falls below its standards or who in the opinion of the college authorities should not remain at Wellesley. In the latter case no specific reason need be assigned.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The Placement Office assists without charge those students and alumnae who are interested in employment. It helps students to obtain summer positions and part-time work in the winter and helps seniors and alumnae to locate positions upon graduation and later in their careers.

The Office maintains a library of vocational literature on current positions and future career possibilities; holds lectures and discussions for students on various occupations; supplies information about training courses, apprenticeships, and graduate assistantships; and schedules interviews for seniors with the employers who recruit at the College.

Seniors and alumnae are invited to register in the Placement Office if they wish to hear of openings and wish to have their employment credentials collected and kept up to date in the years to come for future use.

During the academic year part-time employment is available, except to freshmen during their first term who are expected not to undertake paid jobs until they are familiar with the academic demands on their time. Caring for children offers the largest number of work opportunities, various clerical and other jobs exist, and several exchanges and agencies on the campus provide regular work for a number of students and occasionally yield substantial returns. However, students are cautioned against depending on employment during the academic year for any considerable income. Summer positions are more varied and provide more remuneration.

FEES AND EXPENSES

THE ANNUAL FEE

The inclusive annual fee for tuition, board and room is $3,100. This fee represents approximately three-fifths of the cost to the College for each resident student; the difference is made up from gifts and the income earned on endowment funds. The fee includes a reservation deposit of $200 which constitutes an agreement to make the remaining payments on the dates due and reserves a place in the College for the student.

THE GENERAL DEPOSIT

Each entering student is required to deposit $50 which is refunded after graduation or withdrawal after deducting any special charges which were not previously paid. If the deposit is depleted at any time, replenishment will be required.

PLANS OF PAYMENT FOR 1967-1968

The fee is due in full on September 1. After the Reservation Payment of $200 is paid, and for entering students the General Deposit of $50, a payment of $2,900 will meet the financial obligation for one year.

Plans for conveniently spaced payments are also available: the Standard Plan and a Deferred Monthly Payment Plan, described briefly below. A complete description of these plans is obtainable from the Controller and is routinely supplied to the parents of entering students.

All checks should be made payable to Wellesley College and sent to the Controller. All fees which are due must be paid before the student may begin or continue class attendance, and all financial obligations to the College must be discharged before the diploma is awarded.

Undergraduate students who wish information concerning non-resident fees should write to the Controller after establishing non-resident status with the Dean of Students. Graduate students should consult the bulletin on Graduate Study at Wellesley College.

STANDARD PLAN

First Payment—New students admitted under the Early Decision Plan:

February 1	Reservation payment	$ 200
May 1	General deposit	50
		$ 250

New students admitted under the April Decision Plan:

May 1	Reservation payment	$ 200
May 1	General deposit	50
		$ 250

Returning students:

July 1	Reservation payment	$ 200
--------	---------------------	--------

Second Payment—For all students:

September 1		$1,750
-------------	--	---------

Third Payment—For all students

December 15		$1,150
-------------	--	---------

The total of these payments is $3,100 aside from the $50 General Deposit for students entering College.

If financial aid is granted and the Standard Plan is elected, the aid will usually be applied one-half to the September payment and one-half to the December payment.

DEFERRED MONTHLY PAYMENT PLAN

The College will accept payments made through any bank or trust company or recognized financing agency which will forward these payments in accordance with the Standard Plan.

Arrangements have been made through one such financing agency to offer a monthly or extended payment plan to cover payments due the College. This plan includes provisions for insurance and can be arranged for any reasonable sum of money or length of time. Information about the plan is sent to the parents of all entering students and is available to others upon request to the Controller, Wellesley College.

ALTERNATE PLAN

An alternate plan providing for eight monthly payments is available to returning students. The Controller will furnish information concerning this plan upon request.

WITHDRAWAL

The reservation deposit is not refundable at any time. Additional payments made before the opening of College in the fall are refundable only prior to that time.

The necessity of meeting fixed charges prohibits withdrawal rebate in excess of $17 for each remaining full academic week calculated from January 1 or the withdrawal date, whichever occurs later.

In the event of withdrawal of a student with scholarship assistance, the proceeds of all refunds will be applied first to the scholarship account.

SPECIAL FEES AND EXPENSES

A fee of $150 is charged for each unit taken for credit in excess of the normal academic program. A fee of $50 is charged for validating in September each unit of work done independently during the summer or taken in other institutions in excess of the units accepted for automatic transfer. Exception is made only for the student who is replacing a unit dropped in an earlier term for health reasons and with the approval of the class dean or who is replacing a unit dropped for some other reason before the middle of a term and with the approval of the class dean.

Fees for instrumental and vocal lessons are stated under Music. Infirmary fees for care in excess of the free days allowed by the College are stated under Health Provisions. Students may incur special charges for damages, laboratory breakage, some sport and class supplies, and automobile parking.

A non-refundable application fee of $15 is required of all applicants for admission or readmission. There are no other general college fees.

THE BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT

All of the buildings described below are located on the campus, a five hundred acre tract of rolling meadow and woodland which borders on a natural lake one mile in length. The campus contains special plantings in the Hunnewell Arboretum and the Alexandra Botanic Gardens, the Hay Outdoor Theatre, and ample facilities for a wide range of land and water sports.

ACADEMIC AND COMMUNITY BUILDINGS

BILLINGS HALL, erected in 1880 as a music college, was remodeled in 1962 to provide a center for student organizations.

SIMPSON INFIRMARY was the gift of M. H. Simpson in memory of his wife, who had been a trustee of the College. It was erected in 1881 as a residence hall, later became the infirmary, and now provides living quarters for members of the staff. In 1942 a new wing containing a 29-bed hospital and a clinic was erected and connected with the old infirmary.

THE HOUGHTON MEMORIAL CHAPEL was presented in 1899 by Miss Elizabeth G. Houghton and Clement S. Houghton as a memorial to their father, William S. Houghton, a trustee of the College. In it are stained glass windows commemorating the founder and several former members of the College, and a famous tablet by Daniel Chester French in memory of Alice Freeman Palmer, Wellesley's second president.

THE WHITIN OBSERVATORY, the gift of Mrs. John C. Whitin, a trustee of the College, was erected in 1900 and enlarged in 1962 and 1966. It contains laboratories, darkrooms, and the library of the department of Astronomy. Its research equipment includes a six-inch, a twelve-inch, and a twenty-four inch telescope.

MARY HEMENWAY HALL, the gymnasium, was erected in 1909 when the Boston Normal School of Gymnastics affiliated with the College and Mrs. Mary Hemenway of Boston provided the funds for this building. Classes for indoor sports and modern dance are conducted here and in the Recreation Building. Outdoor sports center around the Boathouse which houses the canoes and crew shells, the Golf House on the nine-hole course, sixteen tennis courts, and the hockey and lacrosse fields.

THE LIBRARY BUILDING, erected in 1910 and enlarged in 1916, was the gift of Andrew Carnegie. In 1957 a wing which doubled its size and in 1958 a complete remodeling of the original building and the installation of a language laboratory were the gifts of alumnae and friends, especially of David M. Mahood and Mrs. Helen M. Petit in memory of Helen Ritchie Petit of the Class of 1928. The Library Building contains approximately 320,000 volumes which include a number of special collections, among them the English Poetry Collection created by George Herbert Palmer and added to by Katharine Lee Bates, Elizabeth Manwaring, and Sara Teasdale, the Browning Collection, the Plimpton Collection of Italian books and manuscripts, and the Elbert Collection on the Negro in slavery. Two other collections, the Laura Hibbard Loomis Collection of Medieval Literature and the collection on the Far East given by the Mayling Soong Foundation, while not housed separately, enrich the resources of the library. The Rare Book Collection contains manuscripts and a small collection of rare books and first editions which range in time from a copy of the Ratdolt Euclid printed in 1482 to the books issued by the contemporary Grabhorn Press. Another 80,000 volumes are located in the Art, Music, and Science departmental libraries.

THE ANNE L. PAGE MEMORIAL SCHOOL, for boys and girls of three, four, and five years of age, occupies two small buildings, the first of which was erected in 1913. There are one-way screens enabling students to observe the children effectively without themselves being seen.

FOUNDERS HALL, a classroom building for the humanities, social sciences, and mathematics, was erected in 1919. Dedicated as a memorial to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fowle Durant, it was built from the Restoration Fund which trustees, faculty, alumnae and friends of the College secured after the College Hall fire.

ALUMNAE HALL, the gift of the alumnae, was built in 1923. It houses the largest auditorium on the campus, a ballroom, and "The Well," the campus snack bar.

SAGE HALL, is named in honor of Mrs. Russell Sage, its principal donor. The unit for botany and bacteriology was erected in 1927 and that for zoology and physiology in 1931. In 1956 the building was remodeled and enlarged to provide facilities also for geography and geology. It now contains the laboratories, lecture rooms, and offices of the departments of Biological Sciences and Geology, a library, a teaching museum, and display areas. Equipment for the research of students and faculty includes greenhouses with a range of climates from tropic to desert, a vivarium, an aquarium, and extensive map collections.

HETTY H. R. GREEN HALL, erected in 1931, was in large part the gift of Mrs. Green's son and daughter, Colonel Edward H. R. Green and Mrs. Matthew A. Wilks. It contains the administrative offices, the faculty assembly hall, class and seminar rooms, and an interdepartmental statistical laboratory. The Galen L. Stone Tower, named for its donor, who was long a trustee of the College, houses a carillon which was the gift of Mrs. Charlotte Nichols Greene.

PENDLETON HALL, erected in 1935, was named at the request of the students in honor of Ellen Fitz Pendleton, president of the College from 1911 to 1936. It contains the laboratories, lecture rooms, libraries, and offices of the departments of Chemistry, Physics, and Psychology. Extensive facilities and equipment provide opportunity for advanced work in various fields of chemistry, including chemical spectroscopy and instrumental analysis; in optics, electronics, and atomic physics; and in various types of experimental psychology.

THE RECREATION BUILDING was opened in 1939. It contains game rooms, badminton and squash courts, lounges, and the George Howe Davenport Swimming Pool which bears the name of the trustee who gave generously toward its construction.

THE JEWETT ARTS CENTER, completed in 1958, was the gift of the late Mr. George Frederick Jewett, his wife (now Mrs. David Gaiser), their son, George Frederick Jewett, Jr., and their daughter, Mrs. William H. Greer, Jr. Mrs. Gaiser, a trustee of Wellesley College, is an alumna, as is her daughter and as was Mr. Jewett's mother. The Center consists of the Mary Cooper Jewett Art Building and the Margaret Weyerhaeuser Jewett Music and Drama Building.

THE MARY COOPER JEWETT ART BUILDING contains the museum, slide collections, classrooms, studios, study rooms and offices of the Art Department and, through the use of a bequest from Mrs. William Hewson Baltzell, a trustee of the College from 1930 to 1938, the Art Library. The museum collection contains choice examples of classical and medieval art; sculptures by Sansovino, Lehmbruck, and Maillol; a famous early Corot and other paintings by such artists as Crespi, Magnasco, Strozzi, Terborch, Cezanne, and Picasso; and, on extended loan, some masterpieces from the Norton Simon Foundation.

THE MARGARET WEYERHAEUSER JEWETT MUSIC AND DRAMA BUILDING contains the music library of books, scores, and recordings; listening rooms, practice studios, classrooms, and offices of the Music Department, and a variety of musical instruments including a baroque organ, a clavichord, and a harpsichord; also a rehearsal room and workshop for the College Theatre, and an auditorium seating 350 people for lectures and concerts and for experimental theatre.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE CLUB, completed in 1963, is a center for faculty and alumnae. It has a few bedrooms for official guests, alumnae, and parents of students and prospective students.

RESIDENCE HALLS

The thirteen residence halls for undergraduate students compose three groups on the campus. Each group is approximately the same distance from the central academic buildings. In the northwest section are Munger Hall and Hazard Quadrangle, which is formed by four halls, Beebe, Cazenove, Pomeroy, and Shafer. Tower Court, Claffin, and Severance Halls are together on the hill overlooking Lake Waban where the original College Hall once stood. The third group stretches east from Stone and Davis on the lake shore to Bates, Freeman, and McAfee Halls.

MUNGER HALL, which houses about 125 students, was given by Miss Jessie D. Munger, of the Class of 1886, in honor of her mother, Gertrude C. Munger. Each of the halls in the HAZARD QUADRANGLE, which is named in honor of Wellesley's fifth president, accommodates about 120 students. BEEBE was made possible by a legacy from Captain John Allen Beebe, a Nantucket sea captain and the father of Alice B. Beebe, of the Class of 1896. CAZENOVE, the gift of Pauline Durant, who with her husband founded the College, bears the name of Mrs. Durant's mother; POMEROY, too, is named for its donor, Mrs. Martha D. Pomeroy, who bequeathed the funds to build it. SHAFER honors the memory of Wellesley's third president.

TOWER COURT, so named because of its tower in the central part separating the two wings and because of its courtyard overlooking the lake, houses approximately 235 students. It was the gift of Ellen Stebbins James. CLAFLIN accommodates about 120 and SEVERANCE 145 students. CLAFLIN is named in memory of William Claflin, Governor of Massachusetts and a member of the original corporate body of the College in 1870, while SEVERANCE bears the name of Elizabeth Severance Prentiss, of the Class of 1887, who was the largest individual donor to the building.

STONE and DAVIS HALLS house about 100 students each. The present Stone Hall was built on the site of old Stone Hall, which was made possible by a gift from Mrs. Valeria G. Stone. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. made generous contributions toward the present Stone and Davis Halls. Olive Davis, for whom Davis Hall is named, was a member of the Class of 1886 and for many years Director of Residence at Wellesley; upon her death she made Wellesley her residuary legatee.

BATES HALL is named in memory of Katharine Lee Bates, of the Class of 1880, for many years a professor of English literature at Wellesley; FREEMAN HALL in memory of Alice Freeman Palmer, Wellesley's second president; and MCAFEE HALL in honor of Mildred McAfee Horton, Wellesley's seventh president. These dormitories each house about 140 students.

GIFTS TO WELLESLEY

The College welcomes outright gifts of cash, gifts of securities and gifts of other property. The College provides income for life to donors who invest in either an Annuity or a Life Income Plan.

FORMS OF BEQUESTS

An unrestricted bequest to Wellesley may be worded:

"I give to Wellesley College, Wellesley, Massachusetts, the sum of dollars."

In the case of a bequest for a specific purpose, it is wise to allow considerable latitude in the use of any fund, so that changing conditions will not impair the usefulness of the gift. Thus, such a bequest may be expressed:

"I give to Wellesley College, Wellesley, Massachusetts, the sum of dollars, the income only to be used for (here describe the purpose in as broad and simple terms as possible, as for example, faculty salaries or scholarships)." The more limited the use, the more important it is to add a provision such as, "If, in the future, the Trustees of the College determine that it is no longer practicable to use the income for this purpose, it may be used for other needs of the College."

A residuary bequest to Wellesley may read as follows:

"All the rest, residue and remainder of my real and personal estate, I give to Wellesley College, Wellesley, Massachusetts," et cetera.
